WEST POINT

The United States Military Academy is renowned because of its historic and distinguished reputation as a military academy, and as a leading, progressive institution of higher education. Made legendary in books and movies produced over the years, the Academy's "Long Gray Line" of graduates includes some of our nation's most famous and influential men: Ulysses S. Grant, Robert E. Lee, Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson, George S. Patton, Omar Bradley, Douglas MacArthur, Dwight Eisenhower and Norman Schwarzkopf.

Because of this superb education and leadership experience, West Point graduates historically have been sought for high level civilian and military leadership positions. Their numbers include two U.S. presidents, several ambassadors, state governors, legislators, judges, cabinet members, educators, astronauts and corporate executives.

Today, West Point continues to provide hundreds of young men and women the unique opportunity to develop physically, ethically and intellectually while building a foundation for an exciting, challenging and rewarding career as an Army officer in the service of our nation. Cadets have much more responsibility in running the Academy than students in most other colleges or universities. It adds to the leadership experience.

Cadets succeed at West Point because of the support they receive from the staff and faculty. After all, many faculty members are West Point graduates and understand the challenge cadets face on a daily basis. They also serve as ideal role models, showing cadets what Army life is like.

The U.S. Military Academy's primary strength is its ability to develop leaders of character who are committed to "Duty, Honor, Country" and selfless service to our nation.

DISTINGUISHED GRADUATES

FRANK BORMAN

ROBERT E. LEE '29

The Academy's ninth Superintendent (1852-55), Lee was a model cadet during his four years at West Point. He graduated second in his class and never earned a single demerit during his four years at the academy. At the beginning of the Civil War, he was selected to serve as Commanding General of the Army, but instead resigned his commission and was named General-in-Chief of the Confederate Army from 1861 to 1865. Lee's surrender to Ulysses S. Grant (USMA 1843), at Appomattox Court House, Va., ended the Civil War. Fort Lee, Va., was named in his honor.

ULYSSES S. GRANT '43

Grant distinguished himself during the Civil War at the Battle of Vicksburg in 1863; his victory secured control of the Mississippi River for the Union. President Abe Lincoln later appointed him Commanding General of the Army in March 1864. On April 9, 1865, at Appomattox Court House, Va., Robert E. Lee (USMA 1829) surrendered the Army of Northern Virginia to him, ending the Civil War. Grant later served as the 18th President of the United States from 1869 to 1877. Today, his image graces the $50 bill.

GEORGE W. GOETHALS '80

Goethals became an architect and was builder of the Panama Canal, 1904 TO 1914.

JOHN J. PERSHING '86

Considered the second most senior officer in Army history, behind only George Washington, Pershing served as commander of the American Expeditionary Force during World War I. The two-million-plus troops of the AEF made a decisive contribution to the defeat of Imperial Germany. Pershing's abilities as a leader distinguished him among European commanders, and through repeated successes on the battlefield, promoted American prestige around the world. He served as Army Chief of Staff in 1921, and was named General of the Armies of the United States upon his retirement in 1924.

DOUGLAS MACARTHUR '03

After World War I, MacArthur returned to West Point to serve as the Academy's 31st Superintendent from 1919 to 1922. During that time, he was responsible for the revitalization of the Academy. He was later promoted to General of the Army and served as Supreme Allied Commander in the Pacific Theater during World War II. During that time, he received the Medal of Honor for leading defense preparation and operations on the Philippine Islands. He later served as Supreme Allied Commander, Japan, and as commander, United Nations Command in the Far East. He was one of only five officers to be promoted to General of the Army (five stars).

GEORGE S. PATTON JR. '09

"Old Blood and Guts," Patton was one of the most colorful commanders in the Army. During World War II the famed commander of the 2nd Armored Division and later the Third Army displayed courage and daring as prominently as the pair of ivory handled revolvers he wore. Patton accomplished one of the most remarkable feats in military history in December 1944, when he quickly turned the Third Army northward to reinforce the Allied southern flank against the German attack in the Battle of the Bulge. The General's doctrine of aggressive employment of massive armor forces continue to prove themselves in combat arenas around the world.

OMAR N. BRADLEY '15

During his career, Bradley earned a reputation as one of the best infantry commanders in World War II. He commanded the 82nd Airborne and 28th Infantry Divisions before going on to command the 1st Army and the 12th Army Group. After the war he served as Army Chief of Staff from 1948 to 1949 and served as the first Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from 1949 to 1953. He was the last Army officer to be promoted to General of the Army (five stars), and the Bradley fighting vehicle is named in his honor.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER '15

During World War II, Eisenhower served as Supreme Commander of Allied Forces Europe from 1943 to 1944, during which he led the D-Day invasion of Europe. During that time, he was promoted to General of the Army (five stars). After the war, he served as Army Chief of Staff from 1945 to 1948 and was named President of Columbia University in 1948. He served as the 34th President of the United States from 1953 to 1961 and was one of only five officers to be promoted to General of the Army (five stars).

ALEXANDER M. HAIG JR. '47

Haig served as Chief of Staff to President Richard Nixon from 1973 to 1974; Supreme Allied Commander in Europe

ROBERT KIMBROUGH

1974 to 1979; President of United Technologies Corporation 1980 to 1981 and Secretary of State during the Reagan administration from 1981 to 1982.

FRANK BORMAN '50

An astronaut from 1962 to 1970, Borman commanded the first circumlunar flight of the earth. He later served as President of Eastern Airlines.

FIDEL V. RAMOS '50

One of the academy's international cadets, Ramos served as a Philippine Army officer after graduation. He eventually became the country's military Chief of Staff and later Secretary of National Defense. He also served as President of the Republic of the Philippines from 1992 to 1998.

BUZZ ALDRIN '51

An astronaut from 1963 to 1972, Aldrin participated in the first manned lunar landing with Michael Collins (USMA '52) and was the second man to walk on the moon.

EDWARD WHITE '52

An astronaut from 1962 to 1967, White was the first man to walk in space and was one of the three astronauts killed in the Apollo 1 disaster in 1967.

H. NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF '56

As Commander-in-Chief, United States Central Command from 1988 to 1991, Schwarzkopf's command ultimately responded to Iraq's invasion of Kuwait with the largest U.S. deployment since the Vietnam War, including portions of the Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps as well as units from dozens of nations around the world. After retiring, Schwarzkopf received the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

PETER M. DAWKINS '59

Dawkins was Cadet Brigade Commander (First Captain of the U.S. Corps of Cadets) as a senior and became the third Heisman Trophy winner in Army football history. He later served as chairman and CEO of Primerica.

JAMES V. KIMSEY '62

Kimsey was the founding chairman of America Online, and was named chairman emeritus in 1996. He founded the Kimsey Foundation in 1996.

MICHAEL W. KRZYZEWSKI '69

Krzyzewski served as head basketball coach at West Point from 1974 to 1979 before assuming similar duties at Duke University. Krzyzewski has led the Blue Devils to three national championships and was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in October 2001. He coached the U.S. at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

MARTIN E. DEMPSEY '74

Gen. Martin E. Dempsey served as the 18th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff until his retirement in September 2015. In that capacity, he served as the principal military adviser to the President, the Secretary of Defense and the National Security Council. By law, he was the nation's highest-ranking military officer. Prior to becoming chairman, Gen. Dempsey served as the Army's 37th Chief of Staff. Dempsey served as the deputy commander, then acting commander of the U.S. Central Command. Before becoming Chief of Staff of the Army, he commanded U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command.

RAYMOND T. ODIERNO '76

Odierno commanded the 4th Infantry Division during the fall of 2003 which, along with Special Forces units, captured Saddam Hussein in December of that year. Odierno helped plan and coordinate the raid that netted Iraq's fallen dictator. Gen. Odierno served as the Chief of Staff of the Army until he retired in June 2015.

ROBERT S. KIMBROUGH '89

Kimbrough was named one of 11 new astronaut candidates by NASA in May 2004. Kimbrough ranks among Army Baseball's career leaders in saves. A veteran of Desert Storm, he currently works for NASA in Houston as a flight simulation engineer and participated in a space shuttle mission in 2009.

WHY WEST POINT?

FRANK BORMAN

"I think if my dear mother were alive, she would tell you nothing comes close to graduating from West Point, even going to the moon."

- ASTRONAUT FRANK BORMAN

"The combination of an education at West Point and the experience of a career in the armed services will prepare you in a unique way for a rich diversity of further career and service in civilian life."

- HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER GLENN DAVIS

GLENN DAVIS

"I believe in the code ... 'Duty, Honor, Country.' I believe in service to one's country. The institution of the armed forces has thrived on its commitment to developing excellence. It is meritocracy in action. Race, religion, wealth, background count not."

- PRESIDENT GEORGE H.W. BUSH

GEORGE H.W. BUSH

"From the birth of our existence, America has had a faith in the future -- a belief that where we're going is better than where we've been, even when the path ahead is uncertain. To fulfill that promise, generations of Americans have built upon the foundation of our forefathers -- finding opportunity, fighting injustice, forging a more perfect union. Our achievement would not be possible without the Long Gray Line that has sacrificed for duty, for honor, for country."

- PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA

"My four years at West Point were wonderful. I loved every minute of it and particularly the last three years. I loved the history. I loved the tradition. I liked wearing the uniform. I felt like I belonged there. Everything was meaningful to me. There is no question in my mind the proudest day of my father's life was the day I graduated from West Point. There is a picture of the two of us standing on 'The Plain' and he is just beaming." - GENERAL H. NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF

"I was so proud to be on the verge of entering the only institution in American society at that time that was totally integrated, in which I would have the opportunity to rise, based solely on performance and ability. The nation always looks to West Point and always looks to each and every one of you to follow always the angels of your nature."
- GENERAL COLIN POWELL

"How great it must be, gosh how great it must be to be a member of this Corps. To know that camaraderie of discipline, of manners, of courtesy, of human sensibility, of one's duty to his fellow man." - JOURNALIST WALTER CRONKITE

"In every corner of America, the words 'West Point' command immediate respect. This place where the Hudson River bends is more than a fine institution of learning. The United States Military Academy is the guardian of values that have shaped the soldiers who have shaped the world."
- PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH

NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF

GEORGE W. BUSH

"This place reeks of honor and discipline. With this show, we've been to a lot of great campuses all throughout the country over the years—and folks, let me tell you - there is absolutely nothing like this! Do yourself a favor and go look up West Point's wikipedia page and compare that to your local college – that ought to shut you down for a while!"
- COLIN COWHERD, ESPN RADIO HOST

WHY WEST POINT?

PETE DAWKINS

"Any of us who went through the process; anyone who felt the flame of that furnace, came away altered in the way we go about running our lives. Some part of it is the belief that you are not only doing it for personal glory, but you do it because it is your responsibility. It's part of being a member of The Corps and each of us that have felt that magic feel especially privileged to have done so."

- HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER PETE DAWKINS

"As I look back over my career in government, in business, of course in the military, I think West Point was a very influential experience. It hardened a sense of discipline, a sense of responsibility, duty and integrity and also very happily combined an alertness of mind and body."

- FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE ALEXANDER HAIG

ALEXANDER HAIG

"For here we train the men and women whose duty it is to defend the Republic, the men and women whose profession is watchfulness, whose skill is vigilance, whose calling is to guard the peace, but if need be, to fight and win."

- PRESIDENT RONALD REAGAN

"WEST POINT IS THE RING.
IT'S THE FOUNDATION OF EVERYTHING I HAVE DONE."

- MIKE KRZYZEWSKI '69

RONALD REAGAN

"In the evening of my memory, always I come back to West Point. Always there echoes and re-echoes ... Duty -- Honor -- Country. Today marks my final roll call with you. But I want you to know, when I cross the river, my last conscious thoughts will be of The Corps ... and The Corps ... and The Corps ..."

- GENERAL DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

"As I look back on my life, I'll always revere the opportunities that came along that brought about the choice I made to go to West Point. I just feel that it was fundamental in molding the fabric of my life. The experiences that I had at West Point, they were irreplaceable." - ASTRONAUT EDWIN "BUZZ" ALDRIN

"You have ahead of you the best of all professions. Being a leader is the best thing you can possibly be and you're at a school that will make you the best possible leader. West Point is the ring. It's the foundation of everything I have done."

- HEAD COACH MIKE KRZYZEWSKI

"This nation is grateful that four years ago every man and woman graduating today made a life-changing decision. You left the comforts and familiar surroundings of civilian life, and devoted yourselves to one of the noblest professions in a free country--the profession of arms."

- FORMER VICE PRESIDENT DICK CHENEY

"West Point's graduates have served America in many, many ways. Not only by leading troops into combat, but also by exploring frontiers, founding universities, laying out the railroads, building the Panama Canal, running corporations, serving in the Congress and The White House, and walking on the moon. Through our history, whenever duty called, the men and women of West Point have never failed us, and I speak for all Americans when I say, I know you never will." - PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON

- 2015 marks the 92nd season that Michie Stadium has served as the “home” of Army Football.
- The Black Knights boast an all-time record of 326-159-7 (.669) at Michie.
- Only 15 Football Bowl Subdivision stadiums, and just six east of the Mississippi River, are older than the fabled venue.
- The Black Knights have enjoyed 28 undefeated “home” seasons during their 88 previous campaigns within the friendly confines of Michie Stadium. In addition, there have been two unbeaten seasons that included at least one tie.
- Army’s 1996 squad set a Michie standard by winning a record six home games en route to a perfect showing at West Point.
- Following the “dedication” game against Columbia in 1924 (a 14-14 tie), the Black Knights won 39 successive home games, spanning six seasons.

“For the second year in a row, ‘the Countdown’ implores you to make an effort to attend a game at Army’s Michie Stadium, as scenic a location to watch college football in the country.”
- New York Times

“There is nothing like being at Michie Stadium on the banks of the Hudson River with the leaves changing during the third weekend in October. The scenery is incredible. And how about the inspiration drawn from being at such a historic landmark? You see the statues of MacArthur, Patton and Eisenhower. Then on game day morning, you have the pleasure of witnessing the Cadet Parade. And how about when the cadets sing ‘On Brave Old Army Team?’ That is an unbelievable moment.” - Mel Kiper Jr., ESPN.com

“Somewhere in the world of college football, there might be a more beautiful place where young men can pull on their uniform and play an autumn game. but right now, it is impossible to imagine such a thing ... “

KIMSEY ATHLETIC CENTER

Nestled among several of West Point's showcase athletic facilities, the sparkling Kimsey Athletic Center serves as the home to Army West Point's storied football program. The massive 120,000-square-foot, four-story facility houses Army West Point's state-of-the-art strength development and athletic training centers, spacious locker rooms, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, equipment room and multi-purpose rooms among others. Kimsey Athletic Center is also the home to the Blaik Gallery and Kenna Hall of Army Sports, a thorough depiction of West Point's rich athletics heritage.

ATHLETIC TRAINING

Stationed on the first floor of Kimsey Athletic Center, Army West Point's athletic training department moved into its new and spacious home in the spring of 2003. The athletic training room now covers 9,500 square feet, housing the finest equipment available for the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries. Highlights of the facility include a 1,202-square-foot cardiovascular room containing more than 25 pieces of equipment; a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area equipped with a 2,018-square-foot rehabilitation pool, Jacuzzi, two large pools, and four regular pools; 10 treatment tables; five modular taping tables; high-density storage; and a physician's office with X-ray capability. The training room also features a vast array of the latest treatment and rehabilitation equipment. Thanks to the expansive new treatment area, Army's athletic training staff can service countless Black Knight athletes simultaneously so they are able to realize their full potential on the "fields of friendly strife."

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

O'MEARA, MALEK, DAWKINS CLASS OF 1959

STRENGTH DEVELOPMENT CENTER

An integral component in Army's intercollegiate athletic program is the strength and conditioning department. The most visible sign of Army West Point's commitment in this area is the O'Meara, Malek, Dawkins, Class of 1959 Strength Development Center in Kimsey Athletic Center, one of the finest facilities in the nation. The monstrous 20,000-square-foot center is located on the second floor of Kimsey Athletic Center and features 30 tons of plates and dumbbells; 15 pieces of cardiovascular equipment, including six high-speed treadmills; a state-of-the-art weight training area with 16 rack and platform training stations, as well as a separate dumbbell area; and top-of-the-line Hammer strength equipment. Under the direction of Scott Swanson, the O'Meara, Malek, Dawkins, Class of 1959 Strength Development Center rivals any training facility in the country.

FOLEY ATHLETIC CENTER

The latest jewel in Army West Point's treasure trove of athletic facilities, Foley Athletic Center opened its doors two years ago, serving as the "winter home" of the Black Knights. The massive 77,000-square-foot structure provides Army's football team with a state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, a place where the team can train in a climate-controlled environment during the winter months and inclement weather days throughout the year. The facility contains a full 100-yard football playing field, along with full 10-yard end zones on both ends. Additionally, a five-yard buffer encircles the field. In all, the FieldTurf playing surface covers 130 yards in length. In addition, a 50-yard-by-10-yard speed and agility room is housed in the sprawling training center. The project was made possible through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. William Foley, who pledged a gift of $15 million towards the continuation of the "Margin of Excellence" facility upgrade project. The largest single donation in service academy history, the gift by the Foley family funded the design and construction of the facility that bears its name. The Foley Athletic Center represents Phase II of the "Margin of Excellence" facility upgrade which began in 2001.

I WANT AN OFFICER...

“I WANT AN OFFICER FOR A SECRET AND DANGEROUS MISSION ...”

The wording on a bronze plaque, placed near the southeast corner of Michie Stadium, has been recognized over the years as a splendid compliment, not only to West Point, but also to the long line of West Point football players ... a unique breed, indeed.

There will be more missions ahead for the soldiers of the U.S. Army, and they will accept and fulfill them to the best of their ability. But seldom will any guidance be as specific as it was during World War II, when Gen. George C. Marshall said:

“... I WANT A WEST POINT FOOTBALL PLAYER.”

It was only an ordinary statement made during the busy, everyday activities at the Pentagon; but it was a remark that came at a very crucial period of World War II, and one that was destined to join other well-remembered phrases which at a particular time supplied the needed inspiration to accomplish a task.

Gen. George C. Marshall, then-Chief of Staff for the U.S. Army, needed an officer to train and lead a ranger-type battalion on a secret mission. He requested the Secretary of the General Staff to obtain this officer. Little did the famous Virginia Military Institute graduate realize, but he was furnishing the words that later were to become of utmost importance to the U.S. Military Academy. His orders were simple and concise.

GAMEDAY AT WEST POINT

"It doesn't take long to figure out that West Point is a special place. Statues attest to the extraordinary people who lived, studied and trained there. Historic landmarks recall powerful events that are rooted in its red-brown New York soil. Cannons are everywhere, as are memorials and special tributes to heroic men who fought in not-forgotten wars. It's an elegant setting for a football program that also is steeped in tradition. Fans still flock to venerable Michie Stadium to experience an atmosphere and pageantry that only West Point can supply.

West Point is all about chills, goosebumps and sentimentality. CENTER OF ATTENTION

ARMY WEST POINT IS ONE OF JUST THREE SCHOOLS IN THE COUNTRY GUARANTEED TO HAVE ALL OF ITS HOME GAMES TELEVISED NATIONALLY.

In the last 20 years, 120 Army West Point games have been televised nationally, 25 via network television. The Black Knights have played before a national television audience 98 times the past 10 seasons alone. Those numbers will continue to grow this fall with 12 national television appearances scheduled as of late summer. Additionally, CBS Sports will televise the Army-Navy Classic to a worldwide audience for the 20th consecutive season. In the last 13 seasons, 68 of Army West Point's 72 home games have been on television, including 56 of 57 contests on national television over the last nine seasons.

While owning one of the nation's most comprehensive television packages, Army West Point boasts one of the country's most unique radio arrangements as well. Army West Point Athletics and its multimedia rights holder, Army Sports Properties announced the creation of an Army Base Network to take Black Knight games and programming to military bases across the United States. The list for 2016 includes stations in Kanas, Idaho, Alabama, North Carolina, Oklahoma and New York. The Army Base Network will provide an exclusive opportunity for military personnel to hear Black Knight football games over the airwaves. Posts currently covered by the network include Ft. Riley (Kan.), Gowen Field (Idaho), Ft. Rucker (Ala.), Fort Bragg (N.C.), Army Air Field (Kan.), Redstone (Ala.), McAlester Army Ammunitions Plant (Okla.) and Fort Drum (N.Y.) Complementing its affiliate lineup, the Army Sports Network returns to Sirius Satellite Radio for a seventh season this fall, and for the 16th consecutive year, Army's radiocasts can also be heard live via the Internet.

It's hard to imagine a program generating more national attention than does Army West Point's. Complementing its vast radio and television presence, feature stories regarding the Black Knights have appeared "coast-to-coast" in news outlets such as Sports Illustrated, USA Today, The Sporting News, ESPN, ESPN.com, ESPN360, SportsLine.com, The New York Times, San Diego Union-Tribune, New York Post, New York Daily News, Journal News, Tampa Tribune, Baltimore Sun, Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia Daily News, Dallas Morning News, San Antonio Express-Times, Denver Post, New Orleans Times-Picayune and Virginian-Pilot in the last few years. While ESPN's popular College GameDay show originated live from West Point on Sept. 27, 2003, "The Seeds of Victory," a Bombo Sports and Entertainment-produced documentary that closely followed Army's 2004 seniors throughout that season, debuted on ESPN six years ago. In 2009, ESPN broadcast its morning SportsCenter live from "The Plain" at West Point, while ESPN's Sports Nation radio show, hosted by Colin Cowherd, visited the Academy in 2010.

In 2011, Showtime Sports and CBS Sports teamed up for "A Game Of Honor," a two-hour exclusive docudrama featuring both Army and Navy. The program won the Emmy Award for Best Sports Documentary, producing an all-access look at both teams' unique season-long journey. The in-depth docudrama had behind-the-scenes access to both academies and their respective football teams for six months leading up to the Army-Navy game, as well as during the game and immediately following.

U.S. MILITARY ACADEMY

The mission of the U.S. Military Academy is to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets so that each graduate is a commissioned leader of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country, and prepared for a career of professional excellence and service to the nation as an officer in the United States Army.

The U.S. Military Academy's role in our nation's history began soon after the American Revolution when Congress formally established the academy on the West Point garrison in 1802. West Point itself dates back to the Revolutionary War, when both the American patriots and the British realized the strategic importance of the commanding plateau on the west bank of the Hudson River. General George Washington considered West Point to be the most important strategic position in America and personally selected Thaddeus Kosciuszko, one of the heroes of the Battle of Saratoga, to design the fortifications for West Point in 1778. Continental soldiers built forts, gun batteries and redoubts and extended a 65-ton iron chain across the Hudson to block British invasions along the river. Fortress West Point was never captured by the British and it remains the oldest continuously occupied active military installation in the United States.

In 1802, President Thomas Jefferson signed the legislation establishing the U.S. Military Academy to create an institution devoted to the arts and sciences of warfare. This effectively eliminated America's wartime reliance on foreign engineers and artillerymen. West Point became the nation's first engineering school and served as the model for engineering programs which were eventually established at other colleges.

Col. Sylvanus Thayer, the "Father of the Military Academy," served as Superintendent from 1817 through 1833. He improved academic standards, instilled military discipline and emphasized honorable conduct and officership. Early graduates were largely responsible for the construction of the nation's initial waterways, bridges, harbors, and roads. Although the curriculum maintains its focus on engineering, in recent decades the program of instruction has markedly changed, providing cadets a selection of more than 35 majors. This tradition of academic and military excellence, guided by a demanding standard of moral and ethical conduct, remains the cornerstone of the West Point experience.

It is said at West Point that "much of the history we teach was made by those people we taught." The academy has produced famous leaders throughout its illustrious past... Civil War Generals Grant, Sherman, Lee, and Jackson, to name but a few. In World War I, 34 of the 38 corps and division commanders were graduates. World War II would see many graduates reach brigadier general or higher, to include Eisenhower, MacArthur, Bradley and Patton. In more recent conflicts, MacArthur, Ridgway, Westmoreland, Abrams, Schwarzkopf and Abizaid were in command.

Academy graduates have also excelled in air and space exploration, and countless others went on from military service to become leaders in medicine, law, business, religion and science.

Since its founding, the military academy fulfills the same mission as it always has... to educate, train, and inspire the Corps of Cadets. It accomplishes this mission by developing cadets in four essential areas: academic, physical, military and character development. These developmental paths are balanced and fully integrated into the daily life of each young man and woman at the academy.

The Academic Program serves as a foundation for the development of critical thinking and creative problem-solving skills. It includes a substantive set of fully integrated core courses that, together, provide an appropriate balance between technical topics and the humanities. Cadets choose their areas of depth from more than 35 academic majors that span a broad spectrum of academic disciplines. Upon graduation, all cadets receive a Bachelor of Science degree and are fully prepared to meet the intellectual requirements of a leader in today's army.

The Physical Program includes both physical education classes and competitive athletics. It contributes to mental and physical fitness and allows the cadet to achieve the highest levels of physical development through a program that emphasizes a lifelong pursuit of personal fitness. The physical education curriculum spans all four years, and physical education class grades are incorporated into the cadet grade point average, highlighting the importance of physical fitness in the Army. Every cadet must participate in competitive sports throughout the academic year, whether in varsity intercollegiate athletics, intercollegiate clubs, or company athletics. The program challenges cadets every day but is widely regarded as both rewarding and enjoyable.

The Military Program is geared toward the cadet's goal of being an officer in the United States Army. Cadets are immersed from day one in a military environment where they are organized in companies and serve in leadership positions within the Corps of Cadets. The heart of the military training takes place during the summer. Each summer of training builds the leadership skills of the previous, so that by graduation each cadet is prepared to lead Soldiers and serve our nation. No matter what major course of study they choose, cadets graduate with the knowledge, confidence, and ability to be successful in their careers.

Intertwining and connecting the other three pillars, the Character Development Program is the most important and fundamental pillar of West Point's 47 month experience. From the Honor Code, which states: "A Cadet Will Not Lie, Cheat, or Steal, Not Tolerate Those Who Do," to developing habits associated with honorably living, moral integrity and courage, cadets are charged to lead by example and reinforce these concepts throughout their daily lives. Classes and studies in Respect, Prevention of Sexual Harassment and Assault, and studies in Honor concepts routinely reinforce the honor code and serve to develop the Corps of Cadets into officers, who someday will exemplify honorable living as officers in the Army. The goal of the character development pillar is to develop leaders of character that are inspired to serve the nation for a lifetime.

Admission is keenly competitive and is open to young men and women from all states and territories and from every socioeconomic level. Prospective cadets must receive a nomination by a member of Congress or from the Department of the Army. The academy seeks candidates who possess records of success in academics, athletics and leadership indicative of well-rounded individuals.

Although the life of a cadet is demanding, there remains an array of club activities ranging from golf, skiing, boxing, crew and orienteering to such organizations as the cadet radio station, Habitat for Humanity and Big Brothers-Big Sisters. Additionally, the U.S. Corps of Cadets hosts a Special Olympics event each spring.

Today's military academy is a vastly different institution from the small academy legislated into being by Congress in 1802. Originally just 1,800 acres, the academy has grown to more than 16,000 acres. The first graduating class numbered just two men; today's classes graduate more than 900 new officers annually, both men and women, who are prepared for leadership roles within the Army. With the expansion of knowledge and the changing needs of the U.S. Army and the nation, life at West Point has changed to keep pace. Ever mindful of its rich heritage, the U.S. Military Academy is developing leaders for tomorrow, and its focus remains the national needs of the 21st century.

ARMY AT YANKEE STADIUM

Army and Notre Dame – two staples of the national sports scene when they met 21 times between 1925 and 1946 at the original Yankee Stadium, the home of the New York Yankees – renewed that historic collegiate rivalry for the 50th time on Nov. 20, 2010, when the Black Knights and Fighting Irish battled in the first football game played at the new Yankee Stadium. NBC Sports televised the Army-Notre Dame game on a national basis in prime time.

Army West Point teams played at the original Yankee Stadium on 38 occasions from 1925 to 1969. Notre Dame ranked as the Black Knights' most common opponent during that span with Army West Point battling the Fighting Irish 22 times over that time. The teams met for the final time at Yankee Stadium in 1969 (helping to commemorate the 100th anniversary of college football). Notre Dame holds a 14-5-3 series advantage against Army West Point in games played at the original Yankee Stadium. Overall, the Black Knights posted a 14-19-5 mark at Yankee Stadium. Army West Point and Air Force began their series matchup with a Yankee Stadium encounter in 1959. Army West Point returned to Yankee Stadium in 2014 and defeated UConn by a score 35-21.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association have reached an exclusive five-year agreement, guaranteeing live television coverage in high definition of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army West Point is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, beginning with the 2015 season and continuing through 2020.

With the exception of this year's opener against Fordham, a major component of the agreement assures that all Army West Point home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at either noon or 3:30 p.m., ET with all kickoff times to be set by May 1 each year. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army's home broadcasts will be made available free of charge to soldiers and military personnel around the world.

With the agreement, no fewer than eight Army West Point games are slated for national television coverage in 2015. In addition to Army West Point's home game broadcast schedule, Army West Point's year-ending battle with arch-rival Navy in Philadelphia, Pa., will be broadcast to a worldwide audience by CBS.

A LONG, PROUD TRADITION

- Army teams have captured three national championships, seven Lambert Trophy crowns and six Commander in Chief's Trophy titles.
- Eleven National Collegiate Athletic Association football records still reside at West Point, including three individual marks and nine team standards. Legendary halfback Glenn Davis had a hand in three of the individual records and participated on Army squads that hold six of the team marks.
- West Point's football alumni include two Rhodes Scholars, two Olmsted Scholarship winners and two Marshall Scholarship recipients. In addition, 13 former players are National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, the most recent being 2000 USMA graduate Shaun Castillo.
- Army Football players have garnered 71 First Team All-America honors.
- Twenty-seven West Pointers have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- Three Army gridders have won the Heisman Trophy. Only four other schools can make that claim.

ARMY SPORTS HALL OF FAME

The Army Athletic Association debuted the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, inducting the charter class into its own shrine of top athletic achievements. The purpose of the Army Sports Hall of Fame, located within the Kenna Hall of Army Sports, is to honor the athletes, coaches, teams, administrators and others who have brought distinction to Army athletics over its many years of existence. Eligible candidates include former athletes, athletic teams, coaches, administrators, support staff or any other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the long history of athletics at the United States Military Academy. Most importantly, these individuals, in addition to specific criteria, must have been of high moral character and must have upheld the values of "Duty, Honor, Country." The Army Athletic Association inducted its charter class into the Army Sports Hall of Fame at a "black-tie" banquet at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City on Oct. 1, 2004.

Five former members of the Army football program helped comprise that esteemed initial grouping. Over the past 12 years, 32 additional former gridiron greats have been enshrined in the Army Sports Hall of Fame, including 2015 inductees Mike Fahnestock, Frank Merritt and Casimir Myslinski. The 2016 class includes football greats Tommy Bell, Townsend Clarke and Ken Johnson. Thirty-nine of the 127 individuals voted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame thus far are associated with Army Football.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

AT WEST POINT, FOOTBALL PLAYERS, LIKE ALL OTHER CADETS, MUST EXHIBIT PROFICIENCY IN THE CLASSROOM AS WELL AS IN MILITARY AND CADET TRAINING. ARMY FOOTBALL PLAYERS HAVE NOT ONLY SUCCEEDED, THEY HAVE EXCELLED.

The Center for Enhanced Performance (CEP) is a state-of-the-art facility committed to developing the full potential of each cadet through comprehensive mental toughness and academic skills training. It offers three programs designed to maximize West Point cadet performance, as well as export these critical mental skills to the United States Army at large.

The Performance Enhancement Program (PEP) is the nation's most comprehensive training program for learning, practicing and mastering the intangible mental skills that underlie human performance; confidence despite setbacks, concentration amidst distractions, and composure under stress. Cadets participate in individual training sessions during free periods in their academic schedule, learning, and then applying the skills of imagery, attention control, energy management, and goal setting. Biofeedback training allows cadets to learn crucial self-regulation techniques, and sophisticated audio and video simulations of game and practice situations are used to facilitate mental rehearsal of specific physical, academic, or military skills.

These training methods are derived from the field of applied sport psychology, where they are employed in the training of professional and Olympic athletes, but apply to every other area of human performance.

He has earned the Combat Infantryman Badge, the Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge, and is Airborne, Air Assault, and Ranger qualified.

Lieutenant General Caslen is married with three children.

BG DIANA M. HOLLAND

COMMANDANT OF CADETS

Brigadier General Diana M. Holland graduated from the United States Military Academy and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers in 1990.

Brigadier General Holland's military service began in Germany where she served as a vertical construction platoon leader in the 79th Engineer Combat Battalion (Heavy), and as a company executive officer and battalion assistant operations officer in the 94th Engineer Combat Battalion (Heavy). Upon returning to the United States, BG Holland was assigned to the 30th Engineer Battalion (Topographic), 20th Engineer Brigade, at Fort Bragg, North Carolina and served as the battalion logistics officer and then as the commander of Headquarters and Headquarters Company.

Following company command, BG Holland earned a Master of Arts degree at Duke University en route to a teaching assignment at the United States Military Academy. She then attended the Army Command and General Staff College and the School of Advanced Military Studies (SAMS) where she earned a Master of Military Arts and Sciences degree.

She was assigned to the 3rd Infantry Division in July 2004, and deployed to Operation Iraqi Freedom 3 serving as a division plans officer and then as the operations officer in the 92nd Engineer Combat Battalion (Heavy). Upon return from Iraq, BG Holland served as a plans officer in the Operations Directorate, United States Central Command at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, Florida.

Brigadier General Holland commanded the 92nd Engineer Battalion (Black Diamonds) from July 2008 to June 2011. She deployed with Task Force Diamond to eastern Afghanistan from May 2010 to April 2011. After relinquishing command, BG Holland was a United States Army War College Fellow at Georgetown University.

In 2012, BG Holland assumed command of the 130th Engineer Brigade at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. The following year, she deployed with the Brigade Headquarters to Bagram Airfield, Afghanistan where the unit served as the Theater Engineer Brigade, Joint Task Force Sapper. The Brigade redeployed to Schofield Barracks in June 2014 and Brigadier General Holland relinquished command in July. During 2015, BG Holland served as executive officer to the Director of the Army Staff at the Pentagon. Most recently, BG Holland was assigned as the Deputy Commanding General for Support, 10th Mountain Division (LI) at Fort Drum, New York, and deployed to Afghanistan in support of Operation Freedom's Sentinel.

Brigadier General Holland's awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit (w/OLC), Bronze Star (w/2 OLC), the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (w/4 OLC), the Combat Action Badge, the Senior Parachutist Badge, the German Parachutist Badge and the Silver Order of the de Fleury Medal.

BG CINDY JEBB

DEAN OF THE ACADEMIC BOARD

Brigadier General Cindy Jebb is the 14th Dean of the Academic Board at West Point. A 1982 graduate of the Military Academy, Jebb received a MA and Ph.D. in Political Science from Duke University and a MA in National Security and Strategic Studies from the Naval War College.

Jebb has authored or co-authored three books, conducted human security research in Africa, and completed study projects in Iraq, Djibouti, and Afghanistan. Jebb has been the head of the Department of Social Sciences since 2013.

BOO CORRIGAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
6TH YEAR
NOTRE DAME, 1990

Boo Corrigan has presided over one of the most successful eras in Army West Point's recent history with Black Knights setting milestones and records both on the fields of friendly strife and in the classroom.

Now in the midst of his sixth year as the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at the U.S. Military Academy, Corrigan has guided the Black Knights to incredible successes with victories over Navy, surpassed ambitious fundraising goals, upgraded several facilities, added three varsity sports and created a new brand identity, all while cadet-athletes continued to raise the bar academically.

The 2015-16 season featured a .581 winning percentage, which was the highest since 2005 and of his tenure. Army captured six conference championships, four team NCAA appearances along with multiple individual NCAA qualifiers. The 2016 senior class boasted the highest winning percentage (.563) since the Class of 1994. The Black Knights were featured on Sports Center on multiple occasions last season, including the jersey retirement of women's basketball player Kelsey Minato during senior night. It was the first time in academy history that a cadet's jersey was retired prior to graduation. Softball standout Kasey McCravey's leap of faith over the catcher was nominated for an ESPY. In addition, Austin Shultz was named the Patriot League's Scholar-Athlete of the Year for men's lacrosse.

Throughout his time at West Point, Corrigan has overseen a program that owns 15 Patriot League regular season or tournament championships and sent 11 teams to the NCAA postseason. Fifty cadets have earned a major award from their conference.

Corrigan was named Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Feb. 1, 2011 and the short time since, Army has won the "Star" series against Navy, claimed the overall competition against the Midshipmen, added Academic All-American certificates, raised the annual fund by nearly $3 million, increased the "For Us All Capital Campaign by $55 million," broke ground on the new lacrosse building, updates to the soccer field, and has established 10 new program endowments.

Under Corrigan's leadership, Army has added women's lacrosse and men's and women's rugby to its offering of sports with nearly a quarter of the Corps of Cadets, around 1,000, competing in varsity sports under the athletic department.

In addition to the additional sport offerings, a massive state-of-the-art videoboard was added to Tate Rink, a press box was included at Doubleday Field at Johnson Stadium, the ticket office was upgraded and moved to a more fan-friendly location in Michie Stadium and work will begin the fall on a lacrosse building that will include locker rooms, team rooms, weight room, athletic training space and much more for both the men's and women's lacrosse programs.

Corrigan has strengthened and expanded Army Athletics' relationships in several key areas. In his tenure, Army has secured a new apparel agreement with Nike, a new pouring rights contract with Coke and bringing in the Aspire Group to enhance ticket sales and better serve Army season ticket holders. Corrigan also crafted the Team Army concept, a comprehensive plan designed to add significant value to Army's corporate sponsorships while maintaining the tradition of West Point Athletics.

During the 2014-15 year, the senior class of 2015 set a high standard for future classes with a .556 winning percentage, marking the highest four-year percentage since the Class of 1995 finished with a .557 mark. In addition, Army West Point had another great year in the classroom with three cadet-athletes earning Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year in their respective sports.

Army West Point also partnered with Nike to complete a successful rebranding initiative in the spring of 2015. Corrigan ushered in a new logo and word mark for Army West Point as part of the rebrand.

In 2013-14, Corrigan led Army Athletics to its first star series victory since 1996, going 12-11 in star competitions against Navy. It was the 12th victory in the series for the Academy. West Point went 18-13 overall against the Mids during the year and has a 34-29-1 mark versus Navy in the last two seasons.

Army finished a very successful campaign in 2013-14 with an overall record of 235-173-7 for a .575 winning percentage, the highest mark since 2004-05.

The Black Knights brought home league titles in men's tennis, baseball and women's basketball. Army won regular season titles in men's tennis and baseball, while the women's hoops squad won the league tournament and was a 13th seed in the NCAA Tournament. Ten of Army's squads participated in Patriot League postseason, while rifle earned an NCAA berth for the 11th-straight season.

Army collected more than 100 all-league citations in 2012-13 alone. Hockey's Cheyne Rocha and lacrosse's Brendan Buckley each captured the Senior CLASS Award in their respective sports, making Army the only school in the nation to have multiple winners in 2012-13.

During the 2012-13 season, Army teams combined to post an overall record of 236-183-8 for a .562 winning percentage. The winter sports programs had their best season in five years as the women's basketball team won the Patriot League regular season title, the men's basketball team posted its first winning season in 28 years and the rifle squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the 10th consecutive season.

It was also a great year in the competition against fellow service academies. Army split the season series versus Navy, 16-16-1, marking the best winning percentage against the Mids (.500) since 2004-05. The Black Knights owned a 4-2-1 record against Air Force, improving the record to 20-18-2 (.525) versus service academy foes in 2012-13.

Cadet-athletes have continued to thrive in the classroom under Corrigan's watch. In his three full years, Army has boasted 12 Academic All-Americans, including seven first-team selections. Lacrosse's Brendan Buckley became the first Army athlete to capture Academic All-American of the Year honors in 2012. In 2011, the Black Knights' football team boasted two first-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, a first for the program since 1957. Since the start of the 2011-12 season, Army boasts six Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year, including Buckley, a two-time overall men's winner. During the 2013-14 season, Army registered five Academic All-American selections.

Twenty of Army's 24 NCAA programs scored above the national average in the 2013 NCAA APR report. The men's cross country and wrestling teams earned public recognition for finishing in the top 10 percent of their respective sport. The cross country squad boasted a perfect score of 1,000.

In addition, former football standout Andrew Rodriguez, Class of 2012, became the first Army player to win the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. Rodriguez later was honored with the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the country. He was the first Army player to receive the award since 1946 and was just the third player in history (Peyton Manning, Tim Tebow) to win both the Campbell Trophy and Sullivan Award.

Army has been the focus of national attention since Corrigan's arrival. He was instrumental in supporting the CBS documentary, "Game of Honor," that chronicled the Black Knights' 2011 football season leading up to its annual showdown with arch-rival Navy. Not only was the two-hour program broadcast to a national audience on Showtime, but also won the Emmy Award for Best Sports Documentary. The Army football team was also the focus of a behind-the-scenes book titled, "Soldiers First," written by New York Times writer Joe Drape.

In addition to his duties at West Point, Corrigan has been an active leader in the Patriot League, serving as chairman of the conference's Broadband Committee.

Corrigan, who was the senior associate athletic director for external affairs at Duke University starting in August 2008, brings a wealth of leadership to his post. He is a proven administrator with 18 previous years of experience in all areas of revenue generation, external affairs, staff management and leadership.

Corrigan's chief responsibilities at Duke included the oversight of the Blue Devil corporate partnerships and the Marketing, Promotions, Ticket, Internet Operations, Sports Information and Video Services departments. In only two years at Duke, Corrigan was responsible for the negotiation of multi-media rights to ISP.

A supervisor of the 2009 NCAA Champion women's tennis and 2010 NCAA Champion men's lacrosse programs, Corrigan was a part of three NCAA Championships at Duke in just two seasons. He served as a member of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Rules committee and the Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Lacrosse Committee, while serving on the Executive Budget Committee at Duke.

Prior to arriving at Duke in August of 2008, he oversaw Notre Dame's corporate relations and marketing as an associate athletic director for five years. During his stint at Notre Dame, Corrigan spearheaded the redesign of its official athletics website and creation of 15-20 hours of original video content weekly. That resulted in a 35 percent increase in page views and unique users. Corrigan also worked directly with ISP Sports, CSTV, and NBC Sports from a sales and marketing standpoint.

Before joining the staff at Notre Dame, Corrigan spent nearly three years as the associate athletic director for marketing at the United States Naval Academy. He was responsible for turning the marketing department from a deficit to profit in his first year with full budget responsibility for the department. Corrigan also was intimately involved with the re-branding of the Annual Giving Campaign (The Blue and Gold), which led to an increase of 75 percent year over year donations.

His collegiate experience also includes a stint as assistant director of marketing at Florida State from 1992-95.

Corrigan is a 1990 University of Notre Dame graduate with a degree in economics. He is married to the former Kristen Aceto, a former field hockey and lacrosse player at the University of Virginia, who also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple has three children, Finley (15), Tre (13) and Brian (12). He is the youngest of seven children of Gene and Lena Corrigan.

The 2016 edition of the Army West Point Football Media Guide was prepared specifically to assist the media in its coverage of Army Football. Requests for additional information should be directed to Matt Faulkner, Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Communications, U.S. Military Academy, 639 Howard Rd., West Point, NY 10996-1589.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

HOFFMAN PRESS BOX

Hoffman Press Box is available to working members of the media only. Cheering is not permitted, nor tolerated. The press box is located atop the West stands of Michie Stadium and is accessible by elevator or stadium stairs. Also located in the press box are radio and television, visiting athletic director, game operations and coaches' booths. Admission to Hoffman Press Box is by credential only.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for working media credentials (print, electronic, photo) for 2016 Army West Point football home games must be made in writing to Bob Beretta at least three weeks in advance of the desired game. Only members of the working media will be granted credentials. Anyone violating this policy will be removed from the press box. Credentials will be mailed 10 days prior to the date of the game. Those not mailed, or requested late, will be left at the "Will Call" window located at Gate 3 of Michie Stadium. Proper identification will be required. Media gates to the stadium open three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The NCAA has established a sideline control policy to keep those areas free from congestion. Only photographers on assignment and working members of the television media are issued sideline passes. For admission to the sidelines at Michie Stadium, a green press credential must be clearly displayed. Under NCAA rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

ARMY-NAVY CREDENTIALS

Navy will be the hosting school for December's Army-Navy battle — the classic series' 117th game — at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. All requests and inquiries for working press credentials should be directed to Scott Strassemeier, Executive Athletic Director at Navy, no later than Wednesday, Nov. 30, 2016.

RADIO INFORMATION

The U.S. Military Academy will provide one ISDN and three analog telephone lines for one visiting radio station, with commercial groups granted preference over student stations. The lines must be reserved through Bob Beretta. There is a $150 rental fee usage for the ISDN line and a $75 rental fee for usage of each analog line. All calls must be charged to the outlet or billed to a credit card. Checks must be made payable to: Army Athletic Association, and received on the day of the game. The visiting radio booth in Hoffman Press Box is located on the second level, Room 214. For additional information on reserving phone lines, contact Bob Beretta at (845) 938-3303, or Verizon at (914) 890-6464, to install a line.

MEDIA POLICIES

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Members of the media are invited to attend practices at all times, unless prior notice of a closed practice is given. Please contact the Office of Athletic Communications in advance to determine the status of practice and gain clearance into the workout. A member of the Office of Athletic Communications must accompany media members at all practices and the use of cameras will be limited. Practice generally begins at 4:30 p.m. and runs until 6:15 p.m. Players are not available before or after practice. Coaches may be available based on that day's schedule.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head coach Jeff Monken hosts a weekly media conference/teleconference each Tuesday. The media session is held in Nowak Auditorium, beginning promptly at 1 p.m. Monken's press conference can be viewed live via the Army Athletics Web site at www.GoArmySports.com. In addition, a sampling of those quotes will be posted on Army's web site after 4 p.m. Contact the Office of Athletic Communications to obtain the access phone number to the teleconference.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All Army West Point players and coaches will be available to the media throughout the season. All player and coach interviews must be arranged through the Office of Athletic Communications. To ensure availability, please direct your player requests to Matt Faulkner no later than 3 p.m. on Sundays. Players will not be asked to miss class or other academic or military obligations to conduct an interview.

JEFF MONKEN INTERVIEWS

Head coach Jeff Monken is available to the media at his weekly Tuesday press session, which begins at 1 p.m. in Nowak Auditorium. Monken is also available for phone or television interviews by appointment only. Contact Matt Faulkner to schedule an appointment with Coach Monken.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Jeff Monken and selected players will meet the press after each home game in Nowak Auditorium, located just off the building's main entrance. Army's locker room is closed to the media. Please submit the names of players desired for postgame interviews prior to the conclusion of play. Your points of contact during the postgame period are Matt Faulkner and Kat Castner. The visitor's locker room is located on the field level underneath the East stands of Michie Stadium. Postgame interviews will be conducted in the Media Interview Room located nearby. Stephen Waldman will serve as the contact point in that area. A video stream of Army's postgame press conference is also shown on the Michie Stadium video board via Knight Vision.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

MEDIA SERVICES

Play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches' and players' quote sheets, defensive statistics and postgame notes are all regular services provided on game day. Upon arrival, media members will receive an extensive press packet with game program, flip-card, updated statistics and game notes. An internal public address system will provide running play-by-play, updated information and key notes throughout the game.

ELEVATOR SERVICE

Elevator service to Hoffman Press Box is available throughout game day. The Hoffman Press Box elevator will be held with three minutes remaining in each half for use by the coaches of both teams.

PRESS ENTRANCE

Media members should access the Hoffman Press Box elevator at street level below the overpass near Gate 6A of Michie Stadium.

TELEPHONES

Telephones are available for use by request. Only credit card or collect calls are permitted. In addition, a FAX machine is available upon request. Postgame statistics and quotes will be available via the Army Athletics Web site at www.GoArmyWestPoint.com two hours after the conclusion of play. Hoffman Press Box is also outfitted with numerous internet connections situated throughout the facility. Hoffman Press Box is NOT equipped for wireless internet connectivity. Media members are asked to bring their own ethernet cords for game day.

PRESS PARKING

Media members should request parking passes at the time of their initial credential inquiry. Parking passes are limited and will be mailed along with the media credential.

GAME WEEK MEDIA SCHEDULE

GAME DAY AT GOARMYWESTPOINT.COM

The Web site at GoArmyWestPoint.com should be your only internet destination on football Saturdays. During each game of the 2016 campaign, Army's official web site will include live audio, video, game notes and features, postgame quotes from coaches and players, postgame notes and complete game statistics. The site will also provide live statistics.

FOOTBALL INFORMATION ON THE NET

Information on the Army football program can be obtained throughout the year. The comprehensive football site includes current and past press releases, game notes, up-to-date statistics, player and coach profiles, quotes from head coach Jeff Monken's press conferences, video features, rosters, schedule and results, in addition to a vast arsenal of information pertaining to Army West Point's rich football history.

RADIO BROADCASTS ON THE NET

Live radio broadcasts of all 12 games on the Black Knights' 2016 schedule can be heard at GoArmyWestPoint.com. The broadcasts will feature the Army Sports Network's entire broadcast package, including "The Army West Point Football Tailgate Show," game coverage, an information-packed pregame show and a thorough postgame session.

ARMYGAMEDAY.COM

Launched in July 2013, ArmyGameDay.com serves as a hub of information for those visiting historic Michie Stadium. At the new site, fans will be able to access information on schedules, tickets, directions and parking and policies. In addition, historical information, video features, Army football gear and much more will be offered.

ARMY WEST POINT ON THE AIRWAVES

ARMY WEST POINT ON TELEVISION

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association announced an exclusive five-year agreement in the spring of 2015, guaranteeing live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, beginning with the 2015 season and continuing through 2019. The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Boo Corrigan, Director of Athletics at West Point.

A partnership provides that all Army home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at either noon or 3:30 p.m. ET with all kickoff times to be set by May 1 each year. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army's home broadcasts will be made available free of charge to soldiers and military personnel around the world.

In the last 18 years, 99 Army games have been televised nationally, 22 via network television. The Black Knights have played before a national television audience 75 times the past nine seasons alone. A host of other games have been televised regionally. Those numbers will continue to grow this fall with six national television appearances scheduled as of August. Army West Point has had at least seven contests televised each of the past five years.

Army West Point is one of just three schools in the country guaranteed to have all of its home games televised nationally.

In addition to the Black Knights' home affairs, CBS Sports will televise the Army-Navy Classic to a worldwide audience for the 18th consecutive season.

ARMY WEST POINT ON THE RADIO

While owning one of the nation's most comprehensive television packages, Army boasts one of the country's most unique radio arrangements as well.

The Mission WMCA 570AM is the new home of Army football entering the 2016 season. In addition to all football games on The Mission, Army will also air a weekly football minute on WNYM AM 970TheAnswer on Piscopo in the Morning.

Army West Point Athletics and its multimedia rights holder, Army West Point Sports Properties announced the creation of an Army Base Network to take Black Knight games and programming to military bases across the United States. The list for 2016 includes stations in Alabama, Kansas, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Texas.

The Army Base Network will provide an exclusive opportunity for military personnel to hear Black Knight football games over the airwaves. Posts currently covered by the network include Ft. Rucker (Ala.), Ft. Riley (Kan.), Ft. Leonard Wood (Mo.), Ft. Drum (N.Y.), Ft. Bragg (N.C.), Ft. Sill (Okla.) and Ft. Hood (Texas).

Local affiliates, 1260 WBNR-AM and 1420 WLNA-AM air the weekly "This Week In Army Football" radio show, which originates from West Point's First Class Club, throughout the season, as well as the popular "Army Football Tailgate Show." The fast-paced "Army Football Tailgate Show" originates from Black Knights Alley in front of Michie Stadium on game days, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. The 90-minute show is heard from the press box at Army road venues before each of the Black Knights' away contests as well.

Complementing its local affiliate lineup, the Army Sports Network returns to Sirius Satellite Radio for a eighth season this fall, and for the 17th consecutive year, Army West Point's radiocasts can also be heard live via the Internet. All ASN game calls, as well as "This Week in Army Football," the "Army Football Tailgate Show," "Overtime Online," pregame and postgame shows, weekly press conferences and postgame press conferences can be heard and/or viewed live online at GoArmyWestPoint.com via Knight Vision, Army's audio and video streaming platform.

Army West Point's Assistant Athletic Director for Multi-Media Services and Broadcasting, Rich DeMarco, returns for his seventh season as the Black Knights' play-by-play voice this fall. In his 13th year with the Army Athletic Association, DeMarco has served in a number of roles for the Black Knights. The New Jersey product was has most recently added Director of Licensing to his duties.

DeMarco handled sideline reporting duties for Army broadcasts for seven years and also hosted Army's weekly football radio show, as well as "Army Football Tailgate Show." During the winter months, DeMarco serves as radio play-by-play voice of Army's men's and women's basketball teams and handles similar duties for baseball and lacrosse.

Joining DeMarco in the booth on football game days is veteran color analyst Dean Darling, whose ties to Army's football program span four decades.

Tony Morino will handle the sideline reporting duties for the fifth straight season, while Joe Berckerle returns for his third season as a program host. John Minko, Army's play-by-play voice for 11 seasons will host the "Army Football Tailgate Show" from Black Knights Alley.

JEFF MONKEN

@COACHJEFFMONKEN

HEAD COACH

3RD SEASON

MILLIKIN, 1989

Jeff Monken, named Army's 37th individual head coach on Dec. 24, 2013, is set to begin his third season as head football coach.

Monken shows a 42-34 career record as a head coach and a 6-18 mark at Army.

In 2015, he led Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. Under coach Monken, the Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game in 2015 and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for a 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan.

Army finished the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King was the top player in the national rankings. He was 21st in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In Monken's first season at Army, he guided the Black Knights to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium.

Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams and two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's first season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest.

Monken tutored a host of players who listed in the national rankings. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon listed nationally in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With a 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to Monken, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as a head at Georgia Southern.

He spent four seasons as head coach at Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

During his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 36-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under Monken, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to its transitional status.

"I am thrilled to accept the head coaching position at West Point," said Monken at the time of his hiring.

"Not only is the United States Military Academy one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the world, it boasts one of the nation's richest, most historic traditions in all of college football.

"There are so many people I would like to thank for this tremendous opportunity, starting with Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan and our Superintendent, Gen. Bob Caslen. I am honored and humbled by their trust in me to lead the West Point football program. I have had the privilege of serving as a coach for several outstanding institutions and am thankful to all of the student-athletes, coaches, and administrators with whom I have worked.

"Because of their commitment, dedication, and loyalty, this opportunity to serve at West Point has been afforded to me. More than anyone else, I want to thank the men and women who have served and continue to serve our nation in the United States Army. I am proud to be your head football coach."

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons.

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader," said Johnson.

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided Georgia Southern to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

In 2011, Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year as Georgia Southern's head coach, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State as part of a 10-5 season. Georgia Southern ended the season with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern reemerged academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only was Georgia Southern successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional levels.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. Four out of five seasons, the Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at the University Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State University. Monken moved to University of Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach and also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as head coach and at Concordia University (Ill.) as the offensive line coach as well.

A native of Joliet, Ill, Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JEFF MONKEN

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader. Jeff was a loyal assistant coach for me for many years and I'm excited for him and this opportunity." - Paul Johnson, Head Coach, Georgia Tech

"Jeff Monken is one of the bright young coaches in college football. He is a leader and is well prepared for this opportunity. Coach Monken and his teams will be outstanding representatives of the U.S. Military Academy on and off the field. Congratulations to Army for making an inspired choice." - Dan Radakovich, Director of Athletics, Clemson University

"Jeff is a terrific guy and an outstanding football coach. He and his family will be a great fit at West Point. Jeff will be the perfect leader to re-energize the Army football program and build support in the community." - Pete Lembo, Head Coach, Ball State

"The characteristics that make Jeff such a good coach is that he was one of those kids that was no great athlete but became a great player. He knew what it took to develop. When he worked his way into the Milliken Hall of Fame, they asked me some questions and I said it then too. He was one of those players who didn't have great speed but was willing to catch the ball in the briar patch, in the middle of the field. And he was probably the best blocker we ever had. He was also one of those chemistry guys who made everyone around him better. That carried over into the coaching part. I had a chance to visit with him at Georgia Southern and I was able to observe. He is very detailed oriented. Very detailed. He is what I would call a 'coach's coach' and a 'player's coach' and that's rare. He is not wrapped up in the ego part of it. If he can help a player, he is going to help him. If he can help another coach, another high school or college coach, he is going to help him. He is unique and he is going to be successful at Army." - Carl Poelker, Former Head Coach, Millikin University

"He was a great coach, a great man. He loves his team, loves his family and loves the game. Coach is a great fit for Army. He knows how to win and he knows how to handle players. He makes you want to run through a brick wall for him." - J.J. Wilcox, Safety, Dallas Cowboys, four-year letterwinner at Georgia Southern

"Hire Jeff Monken from Georgia Southern and don't look back, Army. He understands the military system. He was an assistant at Navy for all those years they were riding roughshod. He understands how it works. He has a love of the military academy. The guy can coach. He digs the military, he understands it, he understands what's going on." - Charles Davis, FOX NFL Analyst

"While the entire Eagle Nation is sad to lose Coach Monken, we are equally proud of what he accomplished here and of his move to Army. As a coach, Jeff Monken is, in my opinion, the whole package. He obviously knows the Xs and Os of football. But the thing that impresses me most about Jeff is his devotion to developing the entire young man, not just the athlete. He always stresses excellence in both the classroom and on the gridiron, and he encourages community service every chance he gets. He is a strict disciplinarian but is also quick to praise a job well done. Family is first with Coach Monken, and his love for family carries over to his team in every way. It has been a rare privilege for me to work with Jeff Monken, and I will always consider him a first-class coach and a true friend." - Brooks Keel, President, Georgia Southern University

JAY BATEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
3RD SEASON
RANDOLPH-MACON, 1995

Jay Bateman begins his second season as the defensive coordinator of the Army West Point football program.

In his first season at Army West Point, Bateman guided a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

Among the players tutored by Bateman were linebacker Jeremy Timpf, who made a team-high 117 tackles in his first season as a starter and was named to three different postseason all-star teams. Timpf also led the team with 79 solo tackles and 14.5 tackles for losses of 35 yards. He ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game at 6.6 and 23rd in total tackles per contest with 9.8.

In addition, defensive back Josh Jenkins intercepted a team-best four passes and was second on the team with 64 tackles. He was also honored on a trio of all-star teams.

Bateman also guided first-year starter Andrew King to a 63-tackle season.

Army registered 55 tackles for losses of 179 yards, collected 10 quarterback sacks and broke up 33 passes in Bateman's first season calling the defense.

Bateman joined the Army coaching staff following three successful seasons as the defensive coordinator at Ball State University.

A 19-year coaching veteran, Bateman helped Ball State rank ninth nationally in turnovers gained with 31 and 12th in turnover margin at +0.9. In the Mid-American Conference, the team was third in scoring defense.

In his last three seasons at Ball State, Bateman mentored first-team All-MAC selection Jonathan Newsome as well as three second-team choices and helped two others earn third-team accolades.

Newsome was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts with the 166th overall pick. He responded by leading all rookie defensive ends/outside linebackers with 6.5 quarterback sacks.

Bateman began his coaching career at Hampden-Sydney College in 1997 before moving to Siena College in 1999. After one season as an assistant, Bateman was elevated to head coach in 2000 and spent four seasons running the Saints' program.

In 2004, Bateman moved to the University of Richmond for a one-year stint before transitioning to Lehigh University in 2005 where Pete Lembo was the head coach. At Lehigh, Bateman helped tutor a defense that ranked sixth in the country.

Bateman then advanced to Elon University in 2006 and served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He guided linebacker Chad Nkang to All-America status as well as Southern Conference Player of the Year honors. Nkang was drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Elon won 35 games during Bateman's five seasons and collected at least one all-conference linebacker honor each season. Elon's defense ranked fourth nationally and led the Southern Conference in 2009 with just 248.33 yards allowed per contest.

BRENT DAVIS

ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
3RD SEASON
GEORGIA, 1997

Brent Davis begins his second season with the Army West Point football program as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

In his first season at Army West Point, Davis guided an offense that was fifth in the country in rushing yards per game at 296.5.

Davis also tutored running back Larry Dixon who rushed for 1,102 yards as a senior and for more than 3,000 yards for his career. Dixon was 39th in the nation in rushing yards during his final campaign and 40th in rushing yards per contest at 91.8.

Davis helped quarterback Angel Santiago rank 60th in the country with 10 rushing touchdowns.

As the primary play-caller, Davis led Army to 33 rushing touchdowns and 358.8 yards of total offense per contest.

Davis also worked with the offensive line, a unit that featured a different starting five on 10 occasions and still had Army among the nation's rushing leaders.

Center Matt Hugenberg was named to two different postseason all-star teams and Dixon collected honors for three different squads.

Prior to Army, Davis spent four seasons as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator and also coached the offensive line in his second stint in Statesboro, Ga. A veteran triple option coordinator, Davis helped the Eagles to three consecutive trips to the national semifinals. Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances. With Davis' charges blocking up front, Georgia Southern captured four consecutive FCS rushing titles as well as the 2004 scoring title with 47.0 points per contest. Eight linemen earned All-Southern Conference honors and three were voted All-American. Charles Clark won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2002, presented to the best offensive lineman in the Southern Conference.

Davis guided the running backs from 1997-99 and worked with Adrian Peterson, the 1999 Walter Payton Award winner and SoCon Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson collected All-America honors and amassed over 2,600 yards in 15 games. Peterson was drafted in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and played for eight seasons in the NFL.

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008 while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. In 2007, VMI produced four 500-plus yard games and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing and 34th in total offense.

BOB BODINE

ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSIVE LINE
3RD SEASON
TULANE, 1993

Bob Bodine begins his third season as the offensive line coach with Army West Point Football.

In his second season with Army (2015), Bodine continued to guide an offensive line focused on helping create strong and powerful linemen. Anchored by center Matt Hugenberg, the offensive line experienced seven different starting lineup combinations in 2015, but was still considered among the top rushing teams in the country.

In his first year at Army West Point (2014), Bodine helped build an offensive line that ranked fifth in the country in rushing yards, garnering 296.5 yards per game. This fifth place ranking was impressive considering there were 10 different starting lineups, and 13 players saw action among the front five.

Prior to his arrival at Army, Bodine spent four seasons at The Citadel, three of them as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Under his direction, the Bulldogs were among the most successful rushing teams in the country, ranking as high as fourth in the Football Championship Subdivision level in 2013.

Before joining the staff at The Citadel, Bodine spent four seasons as the offensive line coach at the Virginia Military Institute, where he once again coached the Keydets into leading the nation in rushing.

Bodine began his coaching career at his alma mater, Tulane University, as a graduate assistant. While at Tulane, Bob worked with the offensive line and long snappers. He then accepted a position at Georgia Southern where he first had the opportunity to work with Coach Monken. During his six seasons with the Eagles, Bodine coached the outside linebackers, wide receivers and slot backs.

Following Georgia Southern, Bodine then moved to Jackson State as the offensive line

SHADON BROWN

Assistant Coach
Defensive Backs
1st Season
Campbellsville, 2002

ShaDon Brown enters his first season with the Black Knights as the cornerbacks coach.

Brown comes to West Point after five seasons as an assistant at Wofford College. For the first four seasons he was the cornerbacks coach before moving to safeties in 2015. Brown spent the summer of 2015 working in the National Football League as a defensive backs intern with the Super Bowl 50 runner-up Carolina Panthers.

Each season at Wofford, Brown had a cornerback finish in the top five in the Southern Conference in interceptions and he coached three All-Conference cornerbacks from 2011-15. The Terriers were 15th nationally in pass defense among FCS teams in 2011 and 17th in 2012. Wofford led the Southern Conference in total defense twice (2011, 2012) during his five years in Spartanburg, S.C.

In 2015 under Brown, Brion Anderson had three interceptions to lead the Terriers and tied for third in the Southern Conference. During the 2013 season, second year freshman cornerback Chris Armfield led the team in interceptions with three, which tied for the most in the Southern Conference.

In 2012, Brown mentored College Sports Madness Third Team All-American cornerback Blake Wylie. He earned second team All-Southern Conference honors as he led the team and was fourth in the league with three interceptions.

Wofford was a two-time Football Championship Subdivision Playoff Quarterfinalist with Brown as an assistant in 2011 and 2012.

He also spent two seasons as the special teams coordinator from 2013 to 2014. During that span Brown mentored Kasey Redfern punter for the San Diego Chargers. Brown was promoted to recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2015.

Prior to Wofford, Brown spent three seasons as head coach at Rowan County High School in Kentucky. In 2010, the team posted a 10-2 record and won the Class 4A District 8 Championship for the first time since 1982 and reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs. He was named the Kentucky Class 4A District 8 Coach of the Year in 2010 as well.

He led the Vikings to a 4-7 record in his first season and improved to 7-4 in 2009. Overall, Rowan County transformed from 18 wins in nine years to 21 in three years under Brown. He mentored 10 former players that went on to play college football.

In 2001, Brown started at linebacker for the winningest football team in Campbellsville University history. The team won 10 games and finished the season ranked #10 in the NAIA. After graduation, Brown became a graduate assistant outside linebackers coach at the University of the Cumberland in 2003.

He was promoted to a full-time assistant for the 2004 and 2005 seasons, coaching the inside linebackers. While coaching for three years at the University of the Cumberland, Brown was part of 24 wins and nationally ranked teams, defense, and rush offense in two of the three seasons. In 2005, the Patriot football team climbed as high as #5 in the nation. In 2006, he returned to his alma mater Campbellsville University as the inside linebackers coach. In 2007 Brown coached at Boyle County High School in Danville, Kentucky.

KEVIN CORLESS

Assistant Coach
Inside Linebackers
2nd Season
N.W. Missouri State, 1982

Kevin Corless begins his second season with the Army football program as inside linebackers coach.

In his first year at Army West Point, Corless contributed to a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

He was responsible for one of the youngest and most inexperienced position groups on the Black Knights.

Corless helped mentor Jeremy Timpf, a first-year contributor who led the team with 117 tackles, 79 solo stops and 14.5 tackles for losses. Timpf ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game with 6.6 and 23rd in the country in tackles per game at 9.8 and was honored on three postseason all-star teams.

He also assisted the development of Andrew King, a first-year starter who was third on the team with 63 tackles despite missing one game due to injury.

In addition, freshmen Tyler L'Hommedieu and Scott Washle and sophomores Sean McBryde developed into consistent contributors.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided linebackers. Prior to the 2013 season, Corless was promoted to co-defensive coordinator.

The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 squad beat Florida but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

During his tenure at Arkansas State, the defense finished among the top-40 FBS programs in at least one defensive category each season.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt Defensive Coordinator of the Year for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories. ASU finished the 2008 season ranked in the top 20 for redzone defense and tackles for loss, but it was the upset of Texas A&M that earned national attention as linebacker Ben Owens intercepted an Aggie pass late in the game for the win.

In Corless' first season in 2002, ASU finished second in the Sun Belt Conference in five different categories, while the 2002 and 2004 squads posted national statistical rankings. The 2005 team won a Sun Belt championship and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Corless was at Northwestern State in 1995 as a defensive line coach and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 1999 with oversight of the linebackers during his final three seasons. Northwestern State made NCAA FCS playoff ap-

- Called the defense in an upset win for Arkansas State over Texas A&M, holding the Aggies scoreless in the final three quarters pearances in 1997, 1998 and 2001 and won two Southland Conference titles.

Corless played and graduated from Northwest Missouri State and spent two seasons as a graduate assistant where the team went 10-2 and qualified for the national playoffs.

He moved to Montana Tech to mentor linebackers and serve as special teams coordinator. During his eight seasons, he helped the Oreiggers transform from winless in three seasons into conference champions and an NAIA playoff team in 1992.

Corless and his wife Stacey reside at West Point and have three children, Anne, Caitlin and Joe.

DARYL DIXON

ASSISTANT COACH
OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
1ST SEASON
FLORIDA, 2003

Daryl Dixon joins the Army football staff for this first season as the outside linebackers coach.

Dixon comes to West Point after seven seasons at Ball State as an assistant coach, where he tutored outside linebackers, cornerbacks and safeties throughout his stint with the Cardinals. He was on the Ball State staff for a pair of bowl games, including the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg after the 2012 season and the GoDaddy Bowl after the 2013 campaign.

During his time at Ball State, Dixon tutored Eric Patterson to All-Mid-American Conference Third Team honors in 2012 and Jamill Smith to third team honors as a punt return specialist in 2012 as well. In addition, Dixon coached Sean Baker, who finished his career at Ball State as the program's leader in interceptions with 18. He also tutored 2010 second team All-MAC defensive back Jason Pinkston.

He was named ESPN MAC Recruiter of the Year in 2012 and ranked as the No. 2 MAC recruiter by 24/7 Sports in 2012.

Prior to the Cardinals, Dixon spent the 2008 season as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Illinois. He started his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois from Feb. 2006 through Jan. 2008.

- Mentored All-Mid-American Conference Third Team punt return specialist Eric Patterson
- Tutored cornerback Sean Baker, who finished as Ball State's all-time leader in career interceptions with 18.
- Tutored five All-Mid-American Conference honorees, including Willie Sneed, who was a two-time first-team selection

Dixon is a 2003 graduate of the University of Florida, where he starred as a defensive back. He played 49 games with 25 starts for the Gators and was a team captain as a senior. He was named to the 2003 All-Southeastern Conference Second Team and reached four bowl games with Florida. Off the field, he was a two-time Academic All-SEC selection and was voted Florida's Male Outstanding Senior Leader among the entire student body for the fall of 2003 graduating class.

Following graduation, Dixon spent two seasons (2004 and 2005) as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

KEITH GAITHER

ASSISTANT COACH
WIDE RECEIVERS
2ND SEASON
ELON, 1997

Keith Gaither is in his second season as a member of the Army football staff

Gaither tutored Edgar Poe to one of the best seasons for a wide receiver in recent memory. Poe had two 100-yard games, including 121 yards against Navy in 2015. He caught six touchdown passes, which was the most by an Army player since 2007.

He also mentored DeAndre Bell to achieve career highs in receptions and yards as a senior. Bell had two catches for 67 yards at Eastern Michigan and two receptions for 45 yards against Navy.

A veteran coach, Gaither came to West Point following four seasons at Ball State that included a pair of bowl game appearances.

A 1997 graduate of Elon where he was an all-region choice at defensive back and a four-year starter, Gaither has 19 years of coaching experience.

Gaither was part of Ball State teams that played in the Beef 'O' Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl after the 2012 season and the GoDaddy Bowl after the 2013 campaign.

He coached Jordan Williams to All-Mid-American Conference Second-Team honors and KeVonn Mabon to All-MAC Third-Team accolades in 2014. He also mentored Jamill Smith and Willie Snead to All-MAC First-Team honors in 2012 and Snead to All-MAC First-Team accolades in 2013. Snead set the Ball State single-season receiving record with 1,516 yards in 2013 and also set school records for touchdown catches (15) and receptions (106) in a single season in 2013. Snead completed his career second in receptions, receiving yards and TD catches despite playing only three seasons.

He also guided Connor Ryan, who earned Capitol One Academic All-District V in 2012 and Capital One Academic All-American Briggs Orsbon as a senior at Ball State in 2011. Orsbon ended his career as only the second receiver in Ball State history to record over 200 career catches and completed his career with 204 catches for 2,218 yards and became only the sixth player in school history to surpass the 2,000-yard receiving mark.

Gaither coached wide receivers under Ball State head coach Pete Lembo at his alma mater, Elon, in 2009-10 where he tutored wide receiver, Terrell Hudgins. He became the holder of 19 NCAA, Southern Conference or Elon records and finished second in the voting for the 2009 Walter Payton Award, which is awarded to the Football Championship Subdivision Player of the Year. He also coached Aaron Mellett at Elon, who was an All-American for the Phoenix in 2010 and plays for the Baltimore Ravens.

JOHN LOOSE

ASSISTANT COACH
SAFETIES
11TH SEASON
ITHACA, 1987

John Loose is in his second stint with the Army football program and 11th season overall at West Point.

Loose, who spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Lafayette, coached the junior varsity team, linebackers, outside linebackers and secondary during an eight-season stint at the banks of the Hudson. He returned in 2013 and now coaches the safeties.

In 2015, Loose mentored Xavier Moss in his transition to the secondary after spending two seasons on the offensive side of the ball. Moss was third on the team with 67 tackles and had one interception and five pass breakups.

Rhyan England had 64 tackles in 2015 under Loose with three tackles for loss, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

During the 2014 season, Loose mentored a young safeties group. Hayden Pierce, the lone senior starter, registered 45 tackles, despite missing a game. Pierce broke up three passes. Junior Luke Proulx made 28 tackles in eight games and classmate Michael McFadden competed in nine contests. Loose also developed freshman Rhyan England and sophomore Tevin Long. England was moved to the secondary midway through the season and was listed among the starting lineup on five occasions. He made 29 tackles. Long, a converted quarterback, played in all but one game and recorded 10 unassisted tackles.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top-25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs.

In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections while the 2010 squad boasted three all league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $1.7 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country.

Loose and his wife, Marianne, were awarded honorary doctorates from Lafayette College for their community service.

Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest.

Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game.

The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories.

Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense prior to his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-American by five organizations. Blake Costanzo played linebacker the same season and just completed his eighth season in the NFL, most recently with the Chicago Bears.

Loose coached at Army for eight seasons under Bob Sutton. In 1996, Army ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense during a 10-2 campaign that included an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to his time at Army, Loose worked as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.

Loose started his coaching career at the University of Albany in 1987 where he coached the secondary and earned his Masters in Program Development

SEAN SATURNIO

ASSISTANT COACH
TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
3RD SEASON
HAWAII, 1992

Sean Saturnio is in his third season as a member of the Army football coaching staff and enters his first year as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach.

Saturnio spent his first two seasons coaching the fullbacks. Last season, he mentored Aaron Kemper into Army's top rusher with 544 yards on the ground and three touchdowns. Kemper had a pair of 100-yard rushing games, including 140 yards against Eastern Michigan.

Under Saturnio, Matt Giachinta gained 286 yards and scored a touchdown as a senior. He was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was a finalist for the Pop Warner Award.

In his first season at Army West Point, Saturnio helped mentor 1,000-yard rusher Larry Dixon who topped the 3,000-yard mark for his career. Dixon was named to three postseason all-star teams and competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Saturnio also coached Giachinta, Aaron Kemper and Richie Smith, all key parts of a rushing attack that was third in the country at 296.5 yards per game.

He also oversees the punters and helped Alex Tardieu average 39.3 yards on 44 punts. Tardieu pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 18 occasions and totaled six kicks of 50 yards or more.

Saturnio came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line. In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team.

Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities.

MIKE VITI

ASSISTANT COACH
FULLBACKS
1ST SEASON
USMA, 2008

Former fullback Mike Viti, a 2008 West Point graduate, is in his first season as an assistant coach working with the fullbacks.

Viti spent the 2015 season as the Director of High School and Alumni Relations before having an on-field role as an assistant coach.

Viti earned four varsity letters and in addition to his role as team captain, he also served as a Regimental Commander during his senior year.

A powerful blocker, Viti helped open holes for a talented rushing attack. He carried the ball 91 times over his four-year career for 321 yards and three scores. He also caught 30 passes for 198 yards.

Following graduation, Viti served a deployment in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

After retiring from the military as a captain, Viti embarked on Mike's Hike For Heroes, a cross country trek where he walked one kilometer for every service member killed in action in the global war on terror. He concluded the walk covering 7,100 kilometers or 4,400 miles beginning in Washington and wrapping up at the Army-Navy Game presented by USAA in Baltimore, Md.

MITCH WARE

ASSISTANT COACH

QUARTERBACKS

3RD SEASON

S.W. MISSOURI STATE, 1980

Mitch Ware is in his third season as a member of the Army football program where he is responsible for the quarterbacks.

In 2015, Ware tutored three different quarterbacks that started a game for the Black Knights. Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their Army debuts in 2015 and both ran and threw for 100 yards in their first start as a Black Knight. A.J. Schurr filled in against Eastern Michigan and led Army to its best offensive output in its history with over 600 yards of offense.

In his first season at Army West Point, Ware help lead a rushing offense that ranked fifth in the country at 296.5 yards per contest. Under Ware's tutelage, Angel Santiago and Schurr combined for 13 rushing touchdowns. Santiago was second on the squad with 814 rushing yards, while Schurr gained 320. The duo combined to complete 47 of 98 passes with a touchdown pass apiece.

Ware came to West Point from Georgia Southern where he was assistant head coach in 2012, his eighth season on the Eagles' staff. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., Ware was responsible for coaching the quarterbacks.

During the 2013 campaign, Ware mentored quarterback Jerick McKinnon to a tremendous season and an invitation to a showcase bowl event. McKinnon, despite playing in only 10 games, led the team in rushing attempts (161), rushing yards (1,050) and touchdowns (12). He averaged 105 yards per contest and 6.5 yards per carry and was invited to the prestigious Senior Bowl. He connected on 8-of-17 passes for 171 yards with four touchdowns and just one interception.

McKinnon concluded his career third all-time on the Georgia Southern career rushing list with 3,899 yards. Backup quarterback Kevin Ellison was second on the squad with 127 rushing attempts for 886 yards. He completed 41-of-79 passes for 756 yards and two scores.

Ware helped Georgia Southern to three-straight trips to the national semifinals and an upset win at Florida.

Ware served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 and helped Georgia Southern lead the FCS in rushing offense in all four seasons. In his first season, Ware developed first-year starter Chaz Williams into an Associated Press All-America selection and finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. From his quarterback position, Williams ran for 1,422 yards and 27 touchdowns while being named conference player of the year. Fullback Jeremaine Austin, another first-year starter, rushed for 1,416 yards and was named conference rookie of the year.

The following season, Georgia Southern averaged 335.6 rushing yards per game and led the nation as Austin earned Player of the Year and All-America honors.

In 2004, Georgia Southern again led the country in rushing at 369.9 yards per contest and ranked third nationally in yards per game.

Prior to his work with Georgia Southern, Ware coached at Navy for four seasons. While in Annapolis, Md., Ware guided Brian Madden, who nearly rushed for and passed for 1,000 yards with 905 yards on the ground and 902 through the air.

Ware spent 16 seasons at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) where he was a player, assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ware was a four-year starter and co-captain

He helped the team to its last Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association Championship in 1978 and was named the league's most valuable player as a senior in 1979. He established seven school records during his playing days, was chosen as an Associated Press honorable mention All-America and received the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship.

After his playing career, Ware served as a graduate assistant for two seasons at his alma mater before moving into a full-time coaching role. He developed quarterback DeAndre Smith, the Gateway Football Conference's Offensive Player-of-the-Decade for 1985-94.

Ware earned his bachelor's and master's degree from Southwest Missouri State and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996.

Ware and his wife, Judy, have three sons, Jacob, Joshua and Jackson, and reside at West Point.

TUCKER WAUGH

ASSISTANT COACH
SLOT BACKS
15TH SEASON
DePAUW, 1993

Tucker Waugh begins his 16th season as a member of the Army football coaching staff. After serving as wide receivers coach in 2014, Waugh returns to coaching the slotbacks for the second season.

Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04, departed for Stanford and returned to West Point after coaching the wide receivers in California.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams in each of the last five years.

Last season, he guided sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Junior Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries.

Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Jordan Asberry and Tyler Campbell that made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown carry in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army freshman record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss also led the team with an Army freshman record 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career and was part of the 2010 staff which led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

In 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 and ranks second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season rank third on the Army ledger.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside

CHAD WILT

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE LINE
1ST SEASON
TAYLOR, 2000

Chad Wilt enters his first season with the Black Knights as the defensive line coach.

Wilt arrived at West Point after two seasons at the University of Maryland as the defensive line coach with the Terrapins.

In 2015, the defensive line under Wilt totaled 31.5 of the teams 35 sacks, which ranked 14th in the country. Two players from the line were selected in the 2016 National Football League Draft. Yannick Ngakoue was a third round selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars and Quinton Jefferson was picked by the Seattle Seahawks in the fifth round.

Ngakoue set the school record for sacks in a season with 13.5 and was second in the nation. He was named first team All-Big Ten. Jefferson was named honorable mention All-Big Ten under Wilt and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl.

In his first season at Maryland, Wilt tutored one of the best pass rushers in school history in Andre Monroe. The senior totaled 10.5 sacks to finish second in the Big Ten and earned second team all-conference honors from the media and honorable mention all-conference honors from the league's coaches. Monroe set the school's all-time sack record with 25.0.

Wilt also helped nose tackle Darius Kilgo achieve career highs in tackles (43) and tackles for loss (8.0). The senior finished the season tied for first in the Big Ten with four fumble recoveries and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition from the media.

Kilgo was selected in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. It marked the second straight year a player coached by Wilt was chosen in the NFL Draft. Jonathan Newsome, who Wilt coached at Ball State, was picked in the 2014 NFL Draft and was second in the NFL among rookies with 6.5 sacks in 2014.

Prior to Maryland, he spent three seasons as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Ball State. He worked with a defensive unit that improved each of his three seasons in Muncie, Ind.

In his final season at Ball State, the Cardinals improved from 13th in total defense in the MAC in 2011 to seventh in 2013. In addition, the Cardinals' rushing defense and sack totals improved each year. The Cardinals ranked 13th in the MAC in Wilt's first season before improving to seventh in total defense, while the sacks totals increased from 16 (2011) to 27 (2013).

Jonathan Newsome was named to the All-Mid-American Conference first team after he finished with 10 sacks, the second highest total in the MAC, and 11.5 tackles for loss.

Defensive tackle Nathan Ollie joined Newsome on the All-MAC squad. Ollie earned second-team honors after posting 10.0 TFL as the Cardinals earned a berth to the GoDaddy Bowl.

In 2012, Wilt helped Newsome garner second team all-conference accolades after ranking fourth in the MAC with 8.5 sacks and racking up 12.5 TFL, while Ollie picked up third-team honors after being named to the second team in 2011. The Cardinals concluded the season with a trip to the Beef 'O' Brady Bowl.

Prior to his stint with Ball State, Wilt spent one season with the University of Richmond as a defensive line coach and helped Martin Parker earn All-American honors after totaling 14 TFL and 5.5 sacks.

Following the 2010 season, Parker was named the most valuable player on defense in the East-West Shrine Bowl and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the New Giants. Parker would help the franchise win Super Bowl XLVI before his career was cut short due to injury.

Wilt coached the defensive line during the 2009 season at Virginia. He oversaw the development of All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection Nate Collins, who signed with the Chicago Bears prior to

PATRICK TRESEY

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

1ST SEASON

COLLEGE OF MOUNT ST. JOSEPH, 2011

Patrick Tresey enters his first season on the Army West Point football staff as the offensive quality control coach.

Tresey comes to West Point after two years at Kenyon College. In 2015, he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and was promoted to that position after a year as the wide receiver coach and passing game coordinator.

The Lords were first in the North Coast Athletic Conference in sacks against and time of possession under Tresey as offensive coordinator. In his first year, he set up a passing game that allowed starting quarterback Jake Bates to set the Kenyon single-season record for completion percentage.

Prior to Kenyon, he spent two seasons at nearby Ashland University, where he worked with the Eagles offense as a graduate assistant. In those two seasons, the Eagles posted a combined 16-6 record and averaged over 35 points and 417 yards per game.

Prior to his stint at Ashland, Tresey spent a season as the offensive graduate assistant coach at UCLA. In that role he assisted in preparation of the weekly game plan, organized and coached the defensive scout team, prepared and reviewed film with the offensive staff, updated and maintained the offensive playbook, and directed tight end meetings during bowl practice week.

Tresey got his start in coaching at his alma mater, College of Mount St. Joseph in 2010. He was an offensive assistant with that program. He also collected previous coaching experience at a number of football camps, including The Ohio State Football Camp for four years.

During his playing days at College of Mount St. Joseph, Tresey was named to both all-conference and all-academic teams. He graduated in 2011 with a degree in sports management.

SCOTT SWANSON

HEAD COACH

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

21ST SEASON

WAKE FOREST, 1992

An important cog in the physical development of Army's varsity athletes, Scott Swanson is in his 21st year at Army West Point. He served as an Assistant Athletic Director/Director of Strength and Conditioning.

A 1992 graduate of Wake Forest University, Swanson spent the 1995 and 1996 football campaigns as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army before departing to serve in the same capacity at Stanford University. He returned one year later in 1998 to take over the Black Knights' head job.

Since his return to the Academy, Army has captured countless league championships and sent numerous teams to postseason competition, while Black Knight athletes have secured a host of All-America certificates since 1998.

Swanson oversees the unique task of training cadet-athletes at West Point. He directs the training of 1,000 athletes, operates three weight rooms and manages five off-site facilities throughout the country during summer assignments.

The Parkersburg, W.Va., native was instrumental in the development of Army's vast strength development center housed in the Kimsey Athletic Center, which opened in April 2003. The Kimsey Athletic Center houses coaches' offices, spacious locker rooms, equipment rooms, an athletic training area, meeting space and an athletic hall of fame area. But perhaps the crown jewel of the building is its 20,000-square-foot strength development center that is under Swanson's direction.

This area features state-of-the-art equipment to accentuate the overall development of a host of Army athletes, but most notably serves football.

His main duty is overseeing the total strength and conditioning program for Army's 28 intercollegiate sports programs and directly oversees men's basketball and lacrosse.

Swanson is a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2005. He is also a CGFI, CrossFit Level 1 instructor and member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. Swanson resides at West Point with his son, Thor.

JOSH CHRISTIAN-YOUNG

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

2ND SEASON

CENTRAL MISSOURI, 2011

Josh Christian-Young is in his second season with the Army West Point football program and serves as the defensive quality control coach.

Prior to his arrival at West Point, Christian-Young spent two seasons at Georgia Southern as the cornerbacks coach. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., he helped the team post a 16-7 record and win the Sun Belt Conference title. He also assisted in all facets of special teams and had recruiting responsibilities.

Christian-Young began his coaching career at the University of Central Missouri where he coached cornerbacks and nickel backs as well as kickers and punters. In his five seasons, he helped the squad to a 40-17 mark and coached five all-conference players and recruited in Missouri.

A strong safety at Central Missouri, Christian-Young earned a pair of degrees from the university, a bachelor's degree in history and a master's in sociology. He collected a master's in high education administration while at Georgia Southern.

He resides at West Point.

TIM CARON

HEAD COACH

FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

3RD SEASON

WESTFIELD STATE COLLEGE, 2005

Tim Caron begins his third season as Army West Point's head football strength and conditioning coach.

In his first year, Caron helped the Black Knights' put on a collective 1,900 pounds thanks to a better focus nutrition, rest, proper form and focused exercises.

Caron came to West Point following three years at the University of Southern California.

At USC, Caron was the associate strength and conditioning coach and worked with the football team on nutrition, injury and rehabilitation protocol, preparing players for the NFL Combine and oversaw the intern staff.

Prior to USC, Caron spent three years at Georgia Tech as an assistant strength coach working with the football program, specifically in regards to weight management and shoulder rehabilitation. He also worked with women's basketball.

Caron served a bevy of internships, first with Velocity Sports Performance and later with Harvard University, Georgia Tech and the University of Mississippi before securing a role at Springfield College with the football, men's basketball, men's lacrosse, women's volleyball and women's sprinting and jumping programs.

Caron earned his bachelor's degree in Movement Science and Mathematics from Westfield State College.

He secured a master's of science in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from California University of Pennsylvania and master's of exercise science in Strength and Conditioning from Springfield College.

He resides at West Point.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRIAN HESS

ASSISTANT COACH
FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST SEASON
SPRINGFIELD, 2008

Brian Hess joins the Army West Point strength and conditioning staff for his first season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach.

Hess spent the last two seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at Sam Houston State. He worked with six different teams with the Bearkats, including football, volleyball, women's basketball, tennis, bowling and the throwers of the track and field squad.

Prior to Sam Houston State, he was at Delaware, where Hess was responsible for the strength and conditioning efforts for more than 575 student-athletes that were members of the Blue Hens' 21 sports programs.

A native of Kingston, Mass., Hess earned his degree in applied exercise science from Springfield (Mass.) College in 2008.

After beginning his college career at Trinity College, he moved on to Springfield and was a two-year starter at linebacker for the football team, serving as team captain in 2007. His junior senior in 2006, Hess helped lead the team to a 10-2 record and a berth in the NCAA Division III football playoffs.

He began his coaching career at the University of Iowa under head strength & conditioning coach Chris Doyle where he served as an intern in 2008.

Hess then moved on to Georgetown where he worked one season in 2008-09 with Augie Maurelli, serving as an intern and working with the football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, crew, and women's lacrosse programs. He also designed and lead strength and conditioning programs for the field hockey and sailing teams.

Hess earned his first full-time position at Harvard where he served as an assistant director of strength & conditioning the last two seasons in 2009-11. While at Harvard, he served as the second assistant for football and directed efforts for the track and field, men's and women's soccer, women's lacrosse, women's swimming, Nordic skiing, men's and women's water polo, fencing, and women's tennis teams.

Hess is a certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

BRIAN PHILLIPS

ASSISTANT COACH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
2ND SEASON
BRIDGEWATER STATE, 2009

Brian Phillips is in his second season with Army West Point and serves as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

In his role, Phillips works with the Black Knights' football team, as well as the men's and women's track and field teams.

Phillips oversees analytics and data collection and assists in the daily training program for the football team, as well as distributing and collecting daily readiness questionnaires.

He serves as the head strength and conditioning coach for both the men's and women's track and field programs.

Prior to his arrival at West point, Phillips was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Nevada working with the football and men's basketball team.

Phillips spent two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Idaho assisting with the football team and men's basketball programs following an internship with the University of Southern California football team.

He began his coaching career at Viking Football Camp as the head sports performance coach, gained experience at Sharpe Strength and Conditioning and then served an internship at Northeastern University.

Phillips earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Bridgewater State University and is completing requirements for a master's degree in Performance Enhancement and Injury Prevention from California University (Pa.).

ARMY WEST POINT™ FOOTBALL

ARMY-NAVY GAME PRESENTED BY USAA

ARMY AND NAVY WILL MEET FOR THE 117TH TIME ON DECEMBER 10 IN BALTIMORE

- ▶ The storied Army-Navy rivalry will enjoy its 117th edition this season when the Black Knights and Midshipmen play on Dec. 10 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.
- ▶ This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0.
- ▶ Eighty-six of the 116 Army-Navy games have been played within Philadelphia city limits. This year's game in Baltimore, Md., marks only the 10th time the Army-Navy Classic was played outside Philadelphia since 1945. The 1983 game was played at the Rose Bowl, while the 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2001 confrontations took place at Giants Stadium. M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore played host to the classic in 2000, 2007 and 2014. The 2012 at FedEx Field was the first to be hosted by the Washington, D.C. area.
- ▶ There has been 16 different sites since the birth of the series in 1890. Those sites follow: West Point (3, at two locations), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (2), Lincoln Financial Field (8) and FedEx Field (1).
- ▶ The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, after just the 24th meeting between the academies.
- ▶ Further evidence of the rivalry's competitive nature: only 372 points (3.2 ppg) separate the teams through the Classic's initial 116 pairings. Navy has scored 1,834 points (15.8), while Army has recorded 1,462 points (12.6).
- ▶ CBS Sports reaffirmed its commitment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new 10-year agreement beginning in 2009. The Army-Navy Game presented by USAA will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December, a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.
- ▶ The United States Military Academy and United States Naval Academy announced in July 2009 that financial services leader USAA signed a 10-year agreement to be the presenting sponsor of the annual Army-Navy football game. USAA is among the premier providers of banking products, insurance, investments, and financial planning to current and former members of the U.S. military and their families – including the Cadets and Midshipmen from the two academies.

ARMY WEST POINT™ FOOTBALL

COMMANDER IN CHIEF'S TROPHY

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the grid-iron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander in Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 44th season as the pre-eminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander in Chief's Trophy title dates back to 1996, when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by defeating arch-rival Navy 28-24 in Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1996.

Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine times since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, after Navy won two-straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC title on Nov. 5 when they host Air Force. Army will square off against Navy on Dec. 10 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Twenty-one different Army players (earning 21 different honors) have been named an Academic All-America since the program's inception in 1952. In 2014, Terry Baggett was a first-team selection and Thomas Holloway made the second team in 2013. It was the third time out of the last six seasons, Army had two players on the Academic All-America Team. The first since Andrew Rodriguez and Zach Watts achieved the honor in 2011. The Black Knights have produced seven Academic All-Americans in the last seven seasons. Rodriguez and Watts were both first team selections.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Twenty-three different Black Knights have garnered 32 Academic All-District I citations since 1989. Army has been represented on the District I club in 20 of the last 25 years. Since its inception in 2007, the Black Knights have had 20 players named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society, including a program record six selections in 2011. The program honors players who complete their eligibility with at least a 3.2 grade point average. In 2010, Army was the only service academy to place two players on the list, and its six selections in 2011 were also the most by a service academy.

ALMA MATER

The most beloved of all West Point songs, "Alma Mater" had its beginnings as a furlough song in 1908. It was sung at the Baccalaureate Service on June 9, 1912, and took its place as a musical expression of the feelings of every West Pointer toward his alma mater. It is sung by the football team and Corps of Cadets at the conclusion of every football game. The lyrics were changed in 2008 in order to make the song gender-neutral and better reflect the sacrifices and contributions made by West Point's female graduates.

AMERICAN FORCES NETWORK

American Forces Network (AFN) will carry the Army West Point Sports Network broadcast of the 2016 Army-Navy football game, presented by USAA. Part of American Forces Radio and Television Service (AFRTS), the American Forces Network provides stateside radio programming to American servicemen and servicewomen, Department of Defense civilians and family members serving outside the continental United States. AFN will also carry the CBS Sports television broadcast of the contest.

2011 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN ZACH WATTS

ANDERSON, BOB

One of the great names in Army football history, Bob Anderson received the highest honor bestowed by his sport when he was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. One of 14 Army players to earn All-America honors on two occasions, Anderson graduated from West Point in 1960 as one of the finest running backs in the Black Knights' long, illustrious history. Named to All-America squads during his sophomore (1957) and junior (1958) campaigns, Anderson appeared headed for a third consecutive citation before an injury shortened his senior season. Only three Army West Point players have earned All-America honors three times. Anderson was elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

ARMED FORCES BOWL

Army made its return to the postseason in 2010 with a 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. It marked the first time Army played in a bowl game since 1996 and the program's first bowl victory since a 1985 Peach Bowl win over Illinois. Stephen Anderson was named the Black Knights' Most Outstanding Player after recording 14 tackles and intercepting a pass in his final collegiate game.

ARMY-NAVY

One of the most revered rivalries in all of sports will be revisited on Dec. 10, 2016, when Army and Navy clash in the service academies' 117th grid battle hosted by Baltimore, Md. It will mark the sixth time the game will be played in Baltimore and the fourth game at M&T Bank Stadium. As part of a new 10-year broadcast agreement with CBS Sports reached in the fall of 2008, the game is played on the second Saturday in December to conclude college football's regular season.

ARMY WEST POINT FOOTBALL TAILGATE SHOW

The fast-paced Army West Point Football Tailgate Show originates from Black Knights Alley in front of Michie Stadium on game days, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. A video stream of the show is made available on Army West Point's official Web site (GoArmyWestPoint.com) via Knight Vision. The show features interviews with fans, special guests and visits from the Cadet Band, Rabble Rousers and other dignitaries in attendance. The Army West Point Football Tailgate Show is co-hosted by Tony Morino and Joe Beckerle.

BOB ANDERSON

ARMY WEST POINT SPORTS NETWORK

The Army West Point Sports Network broadcasts more than 200 live events each year, providing comprehensive audio and video coverage of Army West Point Athletics. The Army West Point Sports Network features a four-station cluster for football, headlined by flagship station WABC (770-AM, New York, N.Y.).

BICENTENNIAL

On March 16, 1802, President Thomas Jefferson signed into law a bill of the United States Congress authorizing the establishment of "a military academy to be located at West Point in the State of New York." During 2002, the Bicentennial of the founding of the Academy was observed at West Point and at other designated places throughout the world. In addition to a host of high-profile events, a commemorative silver dollar and postage stamp were issued to honor the Academy.

BLACK KNIGHTS ALLEY

The "fan-fest" area located on the east side of Michie Stadium on Mills Road between the East stands and Lusk Reservoir on game days is known as "Black Knights Alley." Black Knights Alley, which debuted in 2004, was completely revamped in 2008 and offers family entertainment for fans of all ages, particularly youngsters, as part of Army West Point's pregame festivities. Following the Cadet Review, fans are transported via bus to Black Knights Alley, which opens to the public approximately three hours prior to kickoff. Once there, fans can visit various photograph and autograph booths, enjoy inflatable activities, military hardware displays and a host of sponsor-related giveaways, listen to the sounds of local cover band Hudson Blue, and much more.

BLACK LION AWARD

One of the most prestigious and important awards Army West Point's coaching staff hands out every year is the Black Lion Award. It is presented in memory of former Army football great Don Holleder, who was killed in combat in Vietnam on Oct. 17, 1967, and the men of the 28th Infantry Regiment (nicknamed the "Black Lions"), who died with him that day.

BLACK KNIGHTS ALLEY

EARL "RED" BLAIK

BLAIK, EARL "RED"

Earl "Red" Blaik was credited with elevating Army's football program from the "pit to the pedestal" during the 1940s. In 18 years at the Black Knight helm, Blaik compiled a 121-33-10 record and remains the winningest grid coach in West Point history. Three of his teams captured national championships and seven were crowned Lambert Trophy titlists. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.

BLAIK FIELD AT MICHIE STADIUM

One of the nation's most venerable athletic facilities added a bit more nostalgia in 1999 when the playing surface at West Point's majestic Michie Stadium was officially designated "Blaik Field," in honor of legendary Army football coach and athletic director Earl "Red" Blaik. The official naming ceremonies took place during pregame festivities of Army's home game versus Ball State on Sept. 25, 1999.

BLANCHARD, FELIX "DOC"

"Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, teamed with "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, to form one of the most heralded backfields in the history of college football. A three-time All-America selection, Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy in 1945, one year before Davis copped the honor. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. The Army Athletic Association retired Blanchard's legendary uniform number 35 during a halftime ceremony on Oct. 10, 2009 when the Black Knights hosted Vanderbilt on "Felix 'Doc' Blanchard Day." Blanchard passed away on April 19, 2009, at the age of 84.

BOWLS

Army West Point sports a 3-2 record in five postseason bowl appearances. The Black Knights made their first postseason appearance in the 1984 Cherry Bowl, defeating Michigan State 10-6. Army's five postseason appearances have been decided by a total of 12 points. All five games have been decided by four points or less.

CADET COLORS

There is great significance to the Cadet colors of black, gold and gray. The components of gunpowder are charcoal, saltpeter (potassium nitrate) and sulfur, which are black, gold and gray in color.

FELIX "DOC" BLANCHARD

CAGLE, CHRIS

Chris "Red" Cagle gained All-America honors three times during the 1920s, the first Army West Point player to achieve that feat during his career.

CALLAHAN, SEAN

In the summer of 2014 at Yankee Stadium, Army West Point Executive Athletic Director Bob Beretta officially welcomed Sean Callahan to the Army West Point team as part of the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation. He was presented with a football, jersey and hat from an assistant coach and posed for photos. Callahan then enjoyed lunch with the players. He underwent his second stem cell transplant in the spring of 2014 due to his brain tumor and was connected to Army West Point football through Friends of Jaclyn Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children and their families who are battling pediatric brain tumors and to raise awareness.

CAMPBELL, CALEB

Caleb Campbell became the first Army football player selected in the National Football League draft since 1997 when he was chosen by the Detroit Lions with the 11th pick of the seventh round (the 218th overall selection) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

CAMPBELL TROPHY

In 2011, Andrew Rodriguez became the first Army player to win the William V. Campbell Trophy. The honor, widely recognized as the top academic honor in college football, is awarded annually to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. Rodriguez was the first service academy player to win the award since Air Force's Chris Howard in 1990. The award comes with a 25-pound bronze trophy and a total post-graduate scholarship of $25,000.

CBS SPORTS

For the 19th straight year, CBS Sports will televise the Army-Navy Classic to a national audience in December. This year's game will be played Dec. 10 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. The network signed a 10-year broadcast extension in 2008 and will televise the game nationally through the 2018 season.

CALEB CAMPBELL

CBS SPORTS NETWORK

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association reached an exclusive five-year agreement that guarantees live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army West Point is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, through the 2019 season. The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Boo Corrigan, Director of Athletics at West Point. The partnership provides that a majority of Army West Point home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at noon. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army West Point's home telecasts will be made available free of charge to military personnel around the world. CBS Sports Network began televising Army West Point home football games in 2009 and entered a five-year partnership in 2010.

CHERRY BOWL

Army defeated Michigan State 10-6 in the inaugural Cherry Bowl in 1984. The game was played in the Pontiac Silverdome.

CLASS THE STARS FELL UPON

West Point's Class of 1915 is affectionately known as the "Class the Stars Fell Upon." There were 164 graduates that year at West Point and an incredible 61 (or 37.2%) went on to attain the rank of general officer. Thirteen cadets in the Class of 1915 earned a varsity "A" in football and of those, nine went on to become general officers (69.2%). Some of the country's most influential leaders of the 20th century were included in the class, names like Dwight Eisenhower, Omar Bradley, James Van Fleet, Vernon Prichard, Leland Hobbs, Walter Hess, Thomas Larkin, Hubert Harmon and Roscoe Woodruff. All earned at least one varsity letter on West Point's gridiron.

CINCINNATI

Following 1,011 non-conference games, Army played its first league contest versus Cincinnati on Sept. 19, 1998. The Black Knights spent 108 years as a Division I-A Independent before joining the ranks of Conference USA.

CIVIL WAR

Best-selling author John Feinstein chronicled the 1995 campaigns of both Army and Navy, culminating with the season-ending battle between the two academies, in a novel titled "A Civil War." The book is widely regarded as the pre-eminent inside look at the storied service academy rivalry.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY

In recognition of the United States service academies, ESPN's popular College GameDay show originated live from West Point, N.Y., on Sept. 27, 2003, when Army West Point hosted Conference USA rival South Florida. With a patriotic theme and the storied grounds of the Military Academy providing a historic backdrop, the nation's premier Saturday morning college football preview show debuted at West Point, making only the third trip to one of the country's service academies. College GameDay has broadcast live from the Army-Navy Game the last couple of meetings.

COMMANDER IN CHIEF'S TROPHY

Named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces, the Commander in Chief's Trophy is awarded annually to the winner of the round-robin football competition between Army, Navy and Air Force. The three-sided structure weighs 170 pounds, stands 2 1/2 feet tall and is engraved with the seal of each academy.

CONFERENCE USA

After 108 years as a Division I-A Independent, Army became a member of Conference USA in 1998. In another change of direction, the Black Knights' football program returned to Division I-A Independent status seven years later (2005).

DAVIS, GLENN

"Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, teamed with "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, to form one of the most heralded backfields in the history of college football. A three-time All-America selection, Davis captured the Heisman Trophy in 1946, one year after Blanchard copped the honor. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1961 and was a member of the charter class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Davis' legendary uniform number 41 was officially retired by the Army Athletic Association in 2004. Davis passed away on March 9, 2005, at the age of 81.

DAWKINS, PETE

Pete Dawkins, who served as the First Captain of the U.S. Corps of Cadets, became the third West Pointer to win the Heisman Trophy when he earned the award in 1958. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1975 and was a member of the charter class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Dawkins' legendary uniform number 24 was officially retired by the Army Athletic Association on Oct. 25, 2008, as West Point celebrated "Pete Dawkins Day."

DRAMATIC ARMY-NAVY FINISHES

Eight of 10 Army-Navy football matchups during the decade of the 1990s were decided by 10 points or less, including an incredible five-game stretch that was decided by a total of 10 points. Army captured all five of those verdicts, with the outcome not resolved until the game's final moments in each case.

"DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY"

Three attributes of paramount importance to a soldier are Duty, Honor, Country. Each is equally important. Together these words form the motto of the U.S. Military Academy.

DYNAMIC DUO

Quarterback Trent Steelman and running back Raymond Maples became just the second Army duo to each rush for 1,000 yards in a season during the 2012 campaign. Steelman rushed for an Army quarterback record 1,248 yards, while Maples became just the third Black Knight to crack the 1,000-yard mark twice with 1,215 yards. The pair's total of 2,463 broke the Academy record for rushing yards by two teammates.

FEDEX FIELD

The home of the Washington Redskins, FedEx Field in Landover, Md., was the site of the 2011 Army-Navy Game presented by USAA. The largest stadium in the NFL at 91,703 seats, FedEx Field was completed in 1997 at a cost of $250 million. The 2011 game marked the first Army-Navy clash hosted by our nation's capital. It was the 16th different venue to host the annual rivalry game.

FIELDTURF

The Army Athletic Association installed a new FieldTurf playing surface at Michie Stadium in the summer of 2015, replacing the FieldTurf surface it put down in 2008. The new turf allows for lines to be repainted for football and lacrosse.

FIRST CAPTAIN

The rank of First Captain is the highest position in the United States Corps of Cadets chain of command. Twenty-seven Army football players or managers have earned the title, including such notable names as Douglas MacArthur and Pete Dawkins. Brandon Whittington was the last Army player to serve as First Captain, performing those duties during the 2012-13 academic year.

FLAGS

When the Black Knights take the field before each game, two players are assigned to run out of the locker room carrying flags. One player leads the way with the American flag, while another totes the flag of the Army unit insignia the Black Knights are wearing on their uniform that game.

FOLEY ATHLETIC CENTER

The massive 77,000-square-foot Foley Athletic Center opened in 2007 and provides Army West Point's football team with a state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, a place where the Black Knights can train in a climate-controlled environment during the winter months and inclement weather days throughout the year.

FORBES MAGAZINE

West Point earned the title of the "Top Public School" in Forbes magazine's 2016 rankings, while also placing 14th as one of "America's Best Colleges," compiled by Forbes and the Center for College Affordability and Productivity. In the report, the CCAP ranked 600 undergraduate institutions based on the quality of the education they provide, the experience of the students and how much they achieve.

ARMY PLAYED ITS 2012 SPRING GAME AT FORT BENNING.

FORT BENNING

On March 9, 2012, the Black Knights played their annual spring game at Fort Benning, Ga., home of the Infantry and Armor branches of the U.S. Army. The game, Army's first spring scrimmage ever played away from West Point, was played at Doughboy Stadium. In addition to the scrimmage, the Black Knights attended Fort Benning's basic training graduation ceremony before taking a tour of the National Infantry Museum. Named after the respective branches, the Armor squad topped the Infantry team, 20-14.

FORWARD PASS

Notre Dame quarterback Gus Dorais and end Knute Rockne used the forward pass to help the Fighting Irish upset a heavily favored Army team in 1913. The game helped popularize the forward pass and showed how it could be integrated with rushing into a complete offense.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

Friends of Jaclyn Foundation's mission is to improve the quality of life for children and their families who are battling pediatric brain tumors and to raise awareness. The foundation pairs up children and their families battling pediatric brain tumors with college and high school sports teams. The teams give these children love, support and friendship as they fight this devastating disease. They celebrate each day by creating lasting relationships between student athletes, the child, and their families. This greatly improves the quality of life for children with brain tumors, as well as those who support them. Army West Point football welcomed Sean Callahan to its roster in the summer of 2014 as part of Friends of Jaclyn and Yankees HOPE Week.

LEAMON HALL

Dec. 21, 2011. The show was nominated for six Emmy Awards and took home three statues, including the one for "Outstanding Sports Documentary."

GROUND FORCES

Army ranked no lower than seventh nationally in rushing during the time it featured the wishbone offense from 1984 through 1999. During that span, the Black Knights copped four national rushing titles. After an eight-year hiatus from the top 10, Army returned to the option and finished the 2008 campaign as the nation's ninth-ranked rushing team. The Black Knights led the nation with 346.5 rushing yards per game in 2011 and were back on top of the national rankings in 2012 with an Academy record 369.8 yards per game. The Black Knights were third in the nation in 2013 in rushing.

HALL, DALE

The impossible task of replacing legendary Earl "Red" Blaik at the Army helm fell on the shoulders of Dale Hall. Hall served as the Black Knights' mentor from 1959 through 1961.

HALL, LEAMON

A strong-armed right-hander, Leamon Hall eclipsed virtually all of Army's passing records on game, season and career levels before graduating in 1978. He passed for 5,502 yards during his West Point career on 426 completions, 38 of which went for touchdowns.

HALL OF FAME

Twenty-seven players and coaches from the storied West Point gridiron program have been elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Ind. Many others with West Point ties have also been enshrined. Arnold Tucker became Army's latest representative in the hall of fame when he was elected in 2008.

HEISMAN TROPHY

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools — Notre Dame (7), Ohio State (7), Southern California (7) and Oklahoma (5) — have had more winners.

DON HOLLEDER

HOFFMAN PRESS BOX

Construction on the $7 million, 12,000-square foot, two-story press box for Michie Stadium was completed in the spring of 2003. Funding for the project was provided as part of the Association of Graduates' Bicentennial Campaign Plan. Mark B. Hoffman (USMA '69), lead donor for the undertaking, pledged $5 million toward construction of the state-of-the-art media facility, which officially opened when Army hosted Connecticut on Sept. 6, 2003.

HOLLEDER, DON

In a desperate move to find a quarterback in 1955, Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik deftly slid All-America end Don Holleder to signal caller. Despite heavy criticism, Blaik stuck with Holleder through early season struggles. Holleder rewarded Blaik's courage with a 6-3 record and a 14-6 season-ending win over arch-rival Navy. Holleder would be killed in action during the Vietnam conflict. The building that houses both Army West Point's intercollegiate basketball and hockey arenas is named in his honor.

HUNDRETH GAME

Arch rivals Army and Navy collided for the 100th time on Dec. 4, 1999, in Philadelphia, Pa. It marked the 12th NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision series to reach the elite club.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Army capped a record-setting 1996 campaign with a December trip to the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl. After establishing a school record with 10 victories, the Black Knights' furious fourth-quarter rally fell just short, losing to heavily favored Auburn 32-29 when a potential game-tying 27-yard field goal sailed wide right in the final minute.

INDEPENDENT

For its first 108 years, Army's football program battled as an independent, winning three national championships and forging one of the richest football traditions in the land. The Black Knights initiated a new chapter in their vast football lore in 1998 when they embarked upon their first campaign as members of Conference USA. Army's brief, seven-year foray into conference life ended in 2005 as the Black Knights returned to Independent status.

INSTANT REPLAY

In the fourth quarter of Army's 21-15 loss to Navy in 1963, CBS utilized the first television "instant replay" on a touchdown run by quarterback Rollie Stichweh. Hall of Fame broadcaster Lindsay Nelson made the call for CBS.

INTENT

Army West Point Athletics does not subscribe to the National Letter of Intent process used by other NCAA institutions. Due to the U.S. Military Academy appointment process, names of recruited cadet-athletes are not available until they arrive for Reception Day (R-Day) during the summer.

INTERVIEWS

Beyond his regular Tuesday press conference, head coach Jeff Monken is available for interviews by appointment only. Please direct all interview requests to Assistant Athletic Director Matt Faulkner at (845) 938-6871. Monken will schedule interviews based on availability. Also, please make arrangements for all player interviews through the Army West Point's Office of Athletic Communications.

JARVIS, CHARLIE

In a 58-25 romp over Boston College on Nov. 9, 1968, Charlie Jarvis carried the ball 22 times for 253 yards and two touchdowns, setting an Army single game rushing mark that remained in place for more than three decades. He finished the year with 1,110 ground yards, an Academy record at the time. Jarvis' single-game standard remained in place until Michael Wallace piled up 269 rushing yards in Army's defeat of Louisville in 1999.

JERSEY NUMBERS

Army West Point has four retired jersey numbers — Pete Dawkins' No. 24, Felix "Doc" Blanchard's No. 35, Glenn Davis' No. 41 and Joe Steffy's No. 61. Army West Point does not issue the No. 12 jersey either. That number represents the United States Corps of Cadets who is recognized as Army West Point's "12th Man."

CHARLIE JARVIS

JONES, CARLTON

Carlton Jones graduated from West Point in 2006 ranked second on Army's career rushing list with 3,356 ground yards. He closed his career 763 yards shy of Mike Mayweather's all-time Army record of 4,299 yards. Jones set a single season school record with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2004.

KICKING MULE

The familiar "Kicking Mule" was adopted as Army's official intercollegiate athletic logo during the mid-1970s. The logo was demoted to "retro" status when the Army Athletic Association unveiled a new family of marks during the summer of 2000.

KIMSEY ATHLETIC CENTER

Ranked as the highest priority project in the U.S. Military Academy's Bicentennial Campaign, Kimsey Athletic Center directly supports the Army West Point football program. Nestled among several of the U.S. Military Academy's showcase athletic facilities (Michie Stadium, Hollender Center and Foley Athletic Center) Kimsey Athletic Center is located behind the south end zone of Michie Stadium. Construction on the project spanned from January 2001 to the spring of 2003. The price tag ($40 million) was covered entirely by private contributions.

KIPER, MEL

ESPN football analyst and National Football League Draft guru Mel Kiper honored West Point's Michie Stadium as the nation's "Most Scenic" venue for college football in a posting on ESPN.com. Kiper also selected the Army-Navy game as owning the "Best Atmosphere" in college football. The lists were based on Kiper's opinion from over 25 years of covering, watching and traveling to college football games as a fan, observer and analyst.

LAUREN'S FIRST AND GOAL

Lauren's First and Goal is a 501(c)3 charitable organization, a labor of love started in 2004 by current Army West Point assistant coach John Loose and his wife, Marianne, in honor of their daughter, Lauren, a 16-year-old pediatric brain tumor survivor. The Loose family started the foundation as a way to help other families who are battling childhood cancer. Since its inception, LFG has raised more than $1.5 million toward its mission to provide financial support for brain tumor research and cancer services, to offer financial and emotional support to families living with pediatric cancer, and to increase awareness of the disease. These goals are made possible through the funding gained through LFG Football Camp and charitable contributions.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

The home of the Philadelphia Eagles, Lincoln Financial Field has served as the home of the Army-Navy Classic seven of the last 10 years. The $395 million, 70,000-seat state-of-the-art facility opened in August 2003. It stands as the fourth different Philadelphia stadium to host the event, and was the 15th different venue in the series.

LIVE STATS

After the launch of the new GoArmyWestPoint.com website in the summer of 2015, live stats underwent an update as well. The new website provider for Army West Point is Sidearm Sports. The revamped site has interactive live stats with headshots and statistical breakdowns. View all the up-to-the-minute stats by selecting live stats on the schedule page.

LOGO

Army West Point's Athletics introduced a new brand and identity system in the spring of 2015. The new logo features the Athena Shield with the helmet and sword. The star at the bottom of the shield represents the connection to the U.S. Army and its storied past. To read more about the rebrand, visit GoArmyWestPointRebrand.com.

LOMBARDI, VINCE

A host of future National Football League coaches cut their respective coaching teeth along the banks of the Hudson. In addition to the likes of Bill Parcells, John Mackovic and Frank Gansz, Vince Lombardi served a coaching stint at West Point. Lombardi was an assistant under Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik from 1949 to 1953.

MIKE MAYWEATHER

LONELY END

In 1958, Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik introduced a formation that famed sportswriter Stanley Woodward described as "the lonely end." Bill Carpenter earned the illustrious assignment during spring practice. When the formation was first installed, Carpenter would break from the huddle and rush to his spot, split 15 yards wide of the offensive line. After six or seven plays he required a break. Blaik developed signals and Carpenter remained out of the huddle by himself. The new formation caught the imagination of football fans throughout the nation.

MACARTHUR, GEN. DOUGLAS

A 1902 West Point graduate who served as football team manager in 1903, Douglas MacArthur became General of the U.S. Army in 1944. During his tenure as West Point Superintendent, MacArthur initiated an intramural sports program that was to become a model for both Army posts and colleges all over the country. Included among his most famous quotes are the following:

"From the Far East, I send you one single thought, one sole idea, written in red on every beachhead from Australia to Tokyo. There is no substitute for victory!"

and

"Upon the fields of friendly strife,
Are sown the seeds
That, upon other fields, on other days,
Will bear the fruits of victory."

MARCH-ON

One of the time-honored traditions of the Army-Navy Classic is the March-On into the stadium conducted by the Corps of Cadets and Brigade of Midshipmen prior to team warm-ups.

MAPLES, RAYMOND

Raymond Maples, who graduated in 2014, was one of only three players in Army history to record back-to-back seasons with at least 1,000 rushing yards. Maples ran for 1,066 yards as a sophomore in 2011 and amassed 1,215 yards in 2012. Maples finished his career sixth on Army's all-time rushing list with 2,878 career rushing yards.

JOSH McNARY

MARSHALL, GEN. GEORGE C.

"I want an officer for a secret and dangerous mission. I want a West Point football player." Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff of the U.S. Army, uttered this most famous phrase during World War II.

MASCOT

Since 1899, mules have served as the mascots for the U.S. Corps of Cadets. The choice of the mule as a mascot reflects the long standing usefulness of the animal in military operation — transporting guns, supplies and ammunition. Strong, hearty and persevering, the mule is an appropriate symbol for the Corps of Cadets.

MAYWEATHER, MIKE

Army's career rushing leader with 4,299 yards, Mike Mayweather held the Academy's single-season mark as well with 1,338 ground yards from 1990 to 2008. The St. Louis, Mo., native finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1990. Mayweather was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

McNARY, JOSH

One of the most productive defenders in Army history, Josh McNary finished his career as the Black Knights' all-time leader with 28 quarterback sacks and 49 tackles for loss. He is the only Army player ever to post two seasons with double-digit sacks, including an Academy record 12.5 in 2009. He finished his career in 2010 by returning a fumble 55 yards for a touchdown in the Black Knights' 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

MEYER, CHARLES R. "MONK"

Charles R. "Monk" Meyer played an instrumental role in Army's success during the 1935 and 1936 seasons. Although small by most standards at 143 pounds, Meyer was an exceptional runner, solid kicker and impressive passer. He lettered two seasons and earned All-America honors in some quarters.

MICHIE, DENNIS MAHAN

Dennis Mahan Michie is credited with introducing the sport of football at the U.S. Military Academy. Michie Stadium is named in his honor. Michie was killed in action during the Spanish-American War. He was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

MICHIE STADIUM

MICHIE STADIUM

Several national publications have labeled Michie Stadium as the nation's finest setting for college football. While Sports Illustrated and Inside Sports magazines have selected Michie as the country's premier college football setting, The Sporting News has listed Michie Stadium as its top "must see" venue in the land, and more recently, ESPN's Mel Kiper selected Michie Stadium as the "Most Scenic" college football site in the country. Army West Point's legendary home stadium celebrated its 90th anniversary as home of the Black Knights in 2014.

MISCHAK, BOB

The most decorated professional player to come out of West Point, Mischak was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 1954. After completing his military service in 1957, he was a starting offensive guard for the 1958 New York Giants in the NFL Championship Game versus the Baltimore Colts. He went on to play for the New York Titans, which later became the New York Jets, and the Oakland Raiders, where he also played tight end. He was selected to two Pro Bowls (1961, 1962) and was named first-team All-AFL by the Associated Press in 1960 and 1961. Following his playing career, he coached the offensive line at West Point from 1966-73. Mischak was a member of the Raiders' organization as a tight ends coach and Player Personnel Director from 1973-87. The Raiders won three Super Bowls and played in eight AFC Championship Games during that period.

MONKEN, JEFF

Jeff Monken was named the 37th head football coach in West Point history on Dec. 24, 2013. Prior to his first season with the Black Knights, he spent the last four seasons at Georgia Southern, where he went 38-16 and qualified for the Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs three years. In 2013, he led the Eagles into a transition year into the Football Bowl Subdivision. Monken brings triple-option expertise after spending years under Paul Johnson at Navy and Georgia Tech.

ARMY WEST POINT FOOTBALL A TO Z

MOONEY, COLLIN

Collin Mooney broke the Black Knights' single season rushing record in 2008 by gaining 1,339 yards. Mooney, Army's main offensive weapon in its switch to the triple-option, set the record with a one-yard gain on the final play from scrimmage versus Navy. The Black Knights' bruising fullback rushed for at least 100 yards in five games and became just the third Army player to rush for more than 200 yards in a game twice in the same season.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Army teams captured consecutive national championships in 1944, 1945 and 1946 under head coach Earl "Red" Blaik.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

In the last 19 years, 107 Army games have been telecast nationally, 31 via network television. The Black Knights are scheduled to have eight of their 12 games televised this year (six nationally, including one on network television), thanks in large part to an agreement struck between CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association in 2009. Army has experienced unprecedented national exposure the past 10 years, garnering a total of 84 national television appearances. In all, 11 of Army's 12 contests last season were televised nationally.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Army closed the 1996 season ranked 24th nationally, the last time the Black Knights have closed a year listed in the Top 25.

NICKNAMES

Army West Point's Athletics introduced a new brand and identity system in the spring of 2015, but the nicknames for the Academy's sports teams have remained the same. The primary name is the "Black Knights" and the "Cadets" name remains as a secondary moniker. Cadets was the preferred nickname for many years, but the Army Athletic Association ushered in a new millennium in 2001 with the change to Black Knights.

NIKE

Owning one of America's top collegiate programs, Army West Point is aligned with arguably the world's leading sports footwear and apparel company, sharing a partnership with Nike, Inc. Each of Army West Point's 28 intercollegiate athletic teams sport Nike footwear, uniforms, apparel and accessories.

A FULL DRESS CADET PARADE

NOTRE DAME

Next to Navy, Notre Dame stands as Army West Point's most-familiar opponent. The teams' 2010 meeting at Yankee Stadium marked the 50th battle between the storied grid programs. Series highlights have included Notre Dame's 1913 win that popularized use of the forward pass; the Irish's victory in 1924 that prompted Grantland Rice to write about the "Four Horsemen;" and the famous "Win One for the Gipper" speech delivered by Knute Rockne in Notre Dame's 1928 triumph. The two powers were accorded national championship trophies eight times in the 35-season span between 1913 and 1947. The height of the classic rivalry came during the mid-1940s when the Cadets and Irish captured successive national titles from 1943 through 1947. Two of the last three meetings (1995 and 1998) between Army and Notre Dame have been decided by a total of four points, with the heavily favored Irish surviving upset scares in both outings. The 2010 game marked the first college football game at the new Yankee Stadium. The five-year playing hiatus will end this season though as the Army-Notre Dame rivalry will be revisited on Nov. 19.

OLIPHANT, ELMER

Elmer Oliphant authored one of the finest athletic careers in the history of the U.S. Military Academy. A two-time All-America selection on the gridiron, Oliphant earned four varsity letters in baseball, three in football, three in basketball and one in track and field, while garnering monograms in boxing, hockey and swimming before graduating in 1918. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.

The most famous of West Point's athletic songs, "On Brave Old Army Team" ranks as one of the nation's top fight songs.

ONLINE

The Army Athletic Association (AAA) remains on the cutting edge of technology with its presence on the World Wide Web. The AAA's official Web site can be reached at GoArmyWestPoint.com and contains comprehensive coverage of Army West Point's entire intercollegiate athletic program. The site is updated regularly following every Army West Point intercollegiate athletic competition.

THE PLAIN

OVERTIME

Army experienced the first overtime contest in school history on Oct. 7, 1999, when the Black Knights defeated Louisville 59-52 in double-overtime during a wild Thursday night encounter along the banks of the Hudson. Recognized by several national outlets as the most entertaining game of the 1999 college football season, the nationally televised contest also marked the first Thursday evening home affair in West Point history. The Black Knights have played seven overtime contests in the past seven years, winning five of those affairs. Army had its four-game overtime winning streak snapped in 2008 with a 27-24 loss at Buffalo. Army stands 6-2 all-time in overtime tilts.

OVERTIME ONLINE

The Army Athletic Association added a football postgame show to its multi-media cache in 2007 with the development of "Overtime Online." "Overtime Online" originates from Randall Hall Auditorium following Army West Point's home games and includes coverage of postgame press conferences featuring head coach Jeff Monken and selected Black Knight players. The show is broadcast on Army West Point's official Web site and the Michie Stadium video board via Knight Vision.

One of the time-honored traditions of a West Point football Saturday, a full dress cadet parade, takes place on "The Plain" three hours prior to kickoff (weather permitting) of every home Army West Point contest.

PARCELLS, BILL

Highly successful as a head coach in the National Football League, Bill Parcells guided the New York Giants and New England Patriots to Super Bowl appearances. The former Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Miami Dolphins served as an assistant under Army head coach Tom Cahill from 1967 to 1969, and ranks among a host of NFL coaches who spent early portions of their careers along the banks of the Hudson. The prestigious list includes Vince Lombardi, Bob Mischak, John Mackovic, Frank Gansz, Bob Sutton, Bill Sheridan, Perry Fewell and Mike Sullivan.

PHILADELPHIA

With roots dating back to the 19th century, the storied Army-Navy football classic has been played somewhere in the city of Philadelphia 86 of the 116 times the two arch rivals have met. The Army-Navy game, presented by USAA, is scheduled to be held in the "City of Brotherly Love" at Lincoln Financial Field once again in 2017. Army and Navy announced during the spring of 2009 that Philadelphia will host five Army-Navy games during an eight-year span from 2010 through 2017.

"PLAIN, THE"

"The Plain" remains one of the most famous lawns in the nation. Scenically tucked between Washington Hall and Trophy Point, it has been the site of thousands of full dress cadet parades over the years.

PRACTICE

The Black Knights hold an afternoon practice schedule in the fall. Players arrive at Michie Stadium between 3:00-3:15 p.m. and are on the field by 3:30 p.m. In 2016, the Black Knights will practice Tuesday through Friday. The team will hold a workout on Sunday after games before taking the day off on Monday.

PRESIDENT

Three standing presidents have attended the Army-Navy game. Bill Clinton ended the commander in chief's 22-year absence when he watched the 1996 contest in which Army claimed the CIC Trophy. George W. Bush witnessed the Black Knights' 26-17 defeat of the Mids in December 2001, after the events of Sept. 11. President Bush made a return visit to the classic in 2004, addressing both teams in their respective locker rooms prior to the battle. Bush also attended the final Army-Navy game of his presidency in 2008. Current commander in chief Barack Obama attended his first Army-Navy game in 2011. That outing, played at FedEx Field, was the first Army-Navy battle hosted by Washington, D.C.

PRESS CONFERENCE

Head coach Jeff Monken hosts a weekly press conference each Tuesday before a Saturday game. The media sessions are held in Randall Hall Auditorium, beginning promptly at 1 p.m. A live video stream of the press conference is available via the Army Athletic Association's official web site at GoArmyWestPoint.com via Knight Vision.

RING WEEKEND

PUSH-UPS

Members of the Corps of Cadets jump from the stands to complete push-ups following every Army West Point score. Their push-up total matches the Black Knights' point total at the time.

QUARTERBACK RECORDS

Army signal caller Trent Steelman finished his career as Army's all-time leader among quarterbacks with 3,320 rushing yards, 772 rushing attempts, 45 rushing touchdowns and 12 100-yard rushing games. Steelman's touchdown total is an Academy record regardless of position.

RABBLE ROUSERS

Army West Point's cheerleaders, better known as "Rabble Rousers," are all members of the U.S. Corps of Cadets. They support a host of activities in addition to Black Knight athletic contests.

RANGER

Ranger III made his public debut as one of Army West Point's mule mascots on Dec. 8, 2011. Army West Point's two-mule mascot team now consists of Ranger III and Stryker. Long-time mascots Raider and Ranger II were officially retired from service with the debut of the two new mascots.

RESERVOIR

Michie Stadium is located next to scenic Lusk Reservoir. One of the many pieces about West Point's history plebes must memorize is the amount of water in the reservoir. When asked how many gallons of water are in the reservoir, plebes are expected to answer, "78 million gallons when the water is flowing over the spillway." The reservoir was constructed by Captain James L. Lusk (USMA 1878) in 1895.

RING WEEKEND

West Point was the first college to have class rings, so receiving their rings is a major milestone in each cadet's experience. Ring Weekend is held at the beginning of each academic year and includes the ceremony in which the first class cadets receive their rings and a formal banquet. After getting their rings, firsties must face the tradition of avoiding the plebes who are waiting to surprise them. The plebes, usually with dirty hands, make a point of admiring the rings. Part of the tradition includes the plebes reciting, "What a crass mass of brass and glass! What a bold mold of rolled gold! See how it sparkles and shines! It must have cost you a fortune! May I touch it please, Sir/Ma'am?"

ROCKET

One of the traditional cheers at all Army West Point athletic contests is the Rocket Yell. Accompanied by a set of arm and hand movements, the Rocket is one of the most popular traditions at West Point.

RODRIGUEZ, ANDREW

A team captain in 2011, Andrew Rodriguez put his name among the college football elite as a senior. Rodriguez joined Peyton Manning (Tennessee) and Tim Tebow (Florida) as the only players to win both the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete and the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the nation. Rodriguez was the first Army player to capture the Campbell Trophy and the third Black Knight to win the Sullivan Award. Rodriguez led the Black Knights in tackles as a sophomore in 2009, but missed all of 2010 with a career-threatening back injury. After two surgical procedures, he returned to the field in 2011. An Academic All-American, Rodriguez graduated ranked No. 2 in the West Point Class of 2012.

RUSHING TITLES

Army has led the nation in rushing offense nine times in its history (1944, 1945, 1954, 1984, 1993, 1996, 1998, 2011, 2012). The Black Knights were atop the rushing list during two of the last five seasons, the first time Army has led the country in rushing in consecutive years since 1944-45. The Black Knights ended a 30-year drought in 1984 with the introduction of the wishbone, and captured three additional titles from 1993-98. The Black Knights returned to the option in 2008.

SASSAMAN, NATE

Quarterback Nate Sassaman, a converted defensive back, served as Army's trigger man when the wish-bone offense debuted in 1984 under head coach Jim Young. Sassaman guided the Black Knights to a national rushing title that year and their first postseason berth. Sassaman ran for 1,002 yards during the 1984 campaign, becoming the first Army quarterback to reach the 1,000-yard plateau. He currently ranks third on the Army season list for rushing yards by a QB.

SKYDIVERS

The pomp and pageantry of a West Point football Saturday is unmatched. One of the highlights of every Army West Point home game takes place when the game ball is delivered by skydivers that jump into Michie Stadium, weather permitting.

"SOLDIERS FIRST"

New York Times sportswriter and bestselling author Joe Drape chronicled the 2011 season in his book, "Soldiers First: Duty, Honor, Country and Football at West Point." Drape used his unique behind-the-scenes access to team meetings, the locker room and the sideline to tell the story of the players and coaches. The book was released in August 2012.

STEELMAN, TRENT

A four-year starter at quarterback from 2009-12, Trent Steelman broke the Academy record for consecutive starts by a quarterback with 32 straight appearances with the first unit from 2009-11 before missing the Fordham game on Oct. 29, 2011. In 2009, he became the first Army plebe to start a season opener in the modern era, and was the first Black Knight quarterback to start four Army-Navy games. Steelman holds the Army career record for rushing touchdowns (45) and is the only Black Knight to ever pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards during their career.

STEFFY, JOE

Army's only Outland Trophy winner, Joe Steffy, dominated the trenches as a two-way lineman when Army ruled the college football landscape during the 1940s. Steffy capped his brilliant career by accepting the 1947 Outland Trophy, awarded to college football's most outstanding lineman. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1987 and was a member of the second class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. The Army Athletic Association retired Steffy's uniform number No. 61 during a halftime ceremony on Sept. 19, 2009. He passed away May 21, 2011.

STICHWEH, CARL ROLAND

Carl "Rollie" Stichweh was a three-time varsity letter-winner starring at quarterback, halfback, defensive back and kick and punt returner. While being ranked number one in his class for physical education, Stichweh was selected by Navy as the "best opposition back in the country." Stichweh also has a place in college football history after his touchdown run against Navy in 1963 became first play ever broadcast via television instant replay. Following graduation, Stichweh served in the Airborne branch of the U.S. Army and was awarded the Bronze Medal and Air Medal. Stichweh was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

SULLIVAN AWARD

Three Army football players have won the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award. The honor, presented to the nation's top amateur athlete, has been given annually since 1930. The criteria used for selection is based on character, leadership and sportsmanship. Felix "Doc" Blanchard (1945), Y. Arnold Tucker (1946) and Andrew Rodriguez (2011) have all claimed the trophy.

SUN BOWL

Army's heartbreaking 29-28 loss to a heavily favored, Derrick Thomas-led Alabama squad in the 1988 John Hancock Sun Bowl marked the Black Knights' third postseason appearance in five years. The hardfought setback in El Paso, Texas, marked Army's first defeat in three postseason bowl decisions.

TAILGATING

One of the most scenic tailgate sites in the country lies along the banks of the Hudson. The time honored tailgate tradition at West Point begins at dawn of every home football game and runs well after darkness has set in. Army was ranked No. 10 in the country on Tailgater Monthly's list of top college tailgates for 2012. One of Army's regulars described the West Point experience as, "... the whole patriotic feel. You're going to go in and come out feeling good about us as a country. You know you're in a safe place where the kids can run around because we take care of each other."

TELEVISION

Army West Point has experienced unprecedented national exposure the past eight years, garnering a total of 68 national television appearances. In all, 11 of Army's 12 contests last season were broadcast nationally. 10 of those contests were televised nationally. Army struck a new broadcast deal with CBS Sports Network in 2015 that guarantees live national television coverage for each of the Black Knights' home football games through 2019.

THREE

Michie Stadium garnered a third-place rating on the Sports Illustrated list of "Favorite Venues," published in its June 7, 1999, edition. The magazine's selection committee wrote the following about its favorite venues: "There's something about being there. And where exactly would you be if you weren't on your couch? Where would you go to register the click of the turnstile, the feel of wooden slats beneath you, the whiff of stale beer? Wrigley, Wembley, Williamsport. Odd little cathedrals with strange rituals and sacraments (Dodger Dogs!). You'd be someplace that was engineered for sensory overload, not skybox revenue, the smell of peanuts on a summer breeze mingling with the roar of V-8s. You'd be someplace varnished in layers of history, the satiny armrest reminding you that somebody else sat here and saw Babe Ruth hit his 60th. You might be in some abomination of architecture, but you'd be someplace. So here's where we'd be if we could just take in a game some afternoon. We'd be in one of these places, hunched in a time-polished bleacher, humoring the ghosts in the outfield, trying to remember where the hell we parked. Eating a Dodger Dog, probably. Years later, when pressed to explain the unique drama of that afternoon — just smells and sights and sounds, really — we'd say, You had to be there."

THROWBACK JERSEYS

As part of the Army-Navy game's centennial celebration, the teams wore "throwback" game jerseys for their 100th meeting on Dec. 4, 1999. The Black Knights donned replicas of the familiar uniform tops worn by the Army teams of the 1940s and 1950s. Navy, meanwhile, sported the uniform style of its teams from the 1960s. The Black Knights wore similar "throwback" jerseys for their game against Rice in 1995. Army honored its national championship teams from 1944, 1945 and 1946 that day as the Black Knights and Rice played to a 21-21 tie. Former Army head coach Bobby Ross introduced similar "retro" uniforms in 2004 that were worn through 2009 in an effort to harken back to the "Golden Era" of Army football.

THURSDAY NIGHT

Army hosted Louisville on Oct. 7, 1999, in the first Thursday night contest at West Point's Michie Stadium. The game, a classic 59-52 double-overtime victory for the Black Knights, was televised live nationally by Fox Sports Net.

"TOUCHDOWN TWINS"

Felix "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis teamed to form one of the most prolific backfields in the history of college football. Dubbed the "Touchdown Twins," Blanchard and Davis combined to score 97 touchdowns and 585 points from 1943 through 1946. The latter mark still stands as an NCAA record.

TRADITION

One is hard-pressed to find a football program steeped in more tradition than Army's. In their 124th season of intercollegiate competition, the Black Knights sport an overall record of 653-482-51 (.572). Army teams have captured three national championships (1944, 1945 and 1946) and seven Lambert Trophy titles. Three Army players have copped the Heisman Trophy and 27 players and coaches have been elected to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

TRIPLE-OPTION

The Black Knights operated out of the wishbone attack most recently from 1984 through 1999. During the 16 years it worked out of the 'bone, Army captured four national rushing titles and made the first four postseason bowl appearances in school history. Army will continue to utilize the option game under head coach Jeff Monken. The Black Knights have ranked first nationally in rushing two of the last five seasons while employing the triple-option scheme.

TUCKER, ARNOLD

Another Army football legend took his rightful place among college football's all-time greats in the spring of 2008 when Arnold Tucker was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Tucker received the Sullivan Award in 1946 as the nation's top amateur athlete. As part of the famed Army backfield that featured Tom McWilliams and Heisman Trophy winners Glenn Davis and Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Tucker earned first team All-America honors that same season. Tucker quarterbacked the Cadets to a 27-0-1 record and three national championships from 1944 to 1946. Army also won three Lambert Trophy titles as the top team in the East during his tenure. Tucker tallied 1,127 passing touchdowns and 10 touchdowns in his three seasons at West Point after playing at the University of Miami in 1943. Tucker was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in September 2008.

TWELFTH MAN

West Point's Corps of Cadets has long been recognized as Army West Point's 12th man on the field. The Corps remains one of the most spirited student bodies in the nation.

ULLRICH, CARL

Former Army Director of Athletics Carl Ullrich is widely regarded as the person responsible for returning Army's storied football program back to the national forefront. In 1983, Ullrich turned the reins of the West Point gridiron program over to Jim Young, who would engineer one of the greatest turnarounds in the history of the sport. Ullrich became the first administrator elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2007, inducted as part of the fourth class enshrined in the hall.

USAA

Officials from the Army, Navy and USAA announced a 10-year agreement in July 2009 that allows USAA to serve as the presenting sponsor of the Army-Navy football game. As part of the agreement, the classic will be titled, "The Army-Navy Game, presented by USAA." USAA is a diversified financial services group of companies and is among the leading providers of financial planning, insurance, investments and banking products to members of the United States military and their families, including both cadets from West Point and midshipmen from Annapolis. The presenting sponsorship is a first for the fabled Army-Navy classic and reflects the first nationally televised sports sponsorship for USAA, which is based in San Antonio, Texas.

VETERANS STADIUM

Army-Navy games have been contested at 15 different sites over the years, but Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium hosted 17 service academy showdowns during a 22-year stretch spanning the last three decades. "The Vet," which first hosted the Army-Navy game in 1980, was kind to the Army grid program. The Black Knights boasted an impressive 11-5-1 record (.676) versus their arch rivals at Veterans Stadium. The 2001 Army-Navy game was the last to be played at "The Vet" with Army prevailing 26-17.

VIDEO BOARD

Michie Stadium received a significant upgrade for the 2008 season with the installation of a 20-foot-by-50-foot, high definition video board in the North end zone. The display is part of a 30-foot-by-50-foot scoreboard that graces the grounds of the Michie Stadium complex. The HD display is used to showcase replays and video features before, during and after games. In addition, Academy initiatives, displays of cadet spirit and donor recognition are integrated into the Michie Stadium Game Day routine by utilizing the scoreboard and video unit.

ARMY WEST POINT FOOTBALL A TO Z

WEST POINT

West Point, also known as the United States Military Academy, was the first United States military post built after the Declaration of Independence. In its inception, it was under the command of Benedict Arnold. Established in 1802, it is the oldest military academy in the United States. Students are referred to as cadets. Collectively, graduates are known as "The Long Gray Line" because of the color of cadet uniforms and the unbroken line of West Point graduates. West Point trains more U.S. Army officers than any other single institution and a high proportion of distinguished American generals have been West Point graduates. Currently, over 900 graduates are commissioned as U.S. Army lieutenants every year, representing 25 percent of new lieutenants commissioned. The Military Academy is located at West Point, New York, on a scenic overlook of the Hudson River, about 50 miles north of New York City. Occupying over 16,000 acres, it is one of the largest school campuses in the world. By comparison, the United States Naval Academy covers 338 acres and the United States Air Force Academy spans 18,000 acres.

"WHEN SATURDAY MATTERED MOST"

Sports Illustrated writer and West Point graduate Mark Beech chronicled Army's last unbeaten season with his book "When Saturday Mattered Most." Beech utilized interviews and archival material to delve into the details of the 1958 team that went 8-0-1 in legendary head coach Earl "Red" Blaik's final season. Beech's father was a classmate of the firsties on that team, graduating in 1959.

WILLIAMS, BILL

The U.S. Military Academy and the U.S. Naval Academy athletic departments commissioned noted sports artist Bill Williams to paint a commemorative still life illustration, titled "Army-Navy Classic," celebrating the 100th meeting between Army and Navy. The piece sold out quickly and remains available only through secondary markets.

WISHBONE

The Army football program's fortunes turned upward after head coach Jim Young installed the wishbone offense in 1984. During the 16 years it operated out of the 'bone, Army captured four national rushing titles and made the first four postseason bowl appearances in school history.

YANKEE STADIUM

Some of the most famous games ever played by Army football teams have taken place at New York's Yankee Stadium. The majestic "House That Ruth Built" served as the site for many of the storied battles between Army and Notre Dame during the series' early years. Following a 35-year hiatus, big-time college football returned to Yankee Stadium on Nov. 20, 2010, when Notre Dame and Army resumed their fabled rivalry at the "Big Ballyard in the South Bronx." Army returned last season for the first time since 2011 and defeated UConn, 35-21.

YOUNG, JIM

Elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1999, Jim Young is credited with resurrecting a moribund Army football program in the 1980s. He stands as the third-winningest coach in the program's history. Young also served head coaching terms at the University of Arizona and Purdue University.

ZAC DAHMAN

Zac Dahman virtually rewrote Army's passing records on game, season and career levels before graduating from West Point in 2006. A four-year starter, Dahman stands as Army's career leader in passing yardage (6904), pass attempts (1184), pass completions (632) and total offense (6498), among others. All four records were previously held by former standout signal caller Leamon Hall.

ZAC DAHMAN

The heritage associated with Army Football is richly intertwined within the fabric of college football's development since Rutgers and Princeton met in 1869 in the first competitive college game ever. Army's first team took the field in 1890 and Black Knight squads have been rewriting history since.

1890—Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepts a challenge from midshipmen at Navy for a football game. Michie, who organizes, coaches and prepares the Army team, directs his charges onto "The Plain" on Nov. 29 for that historic contest. The more experienced Mids secure a 24-0 victory, but intercollegiate football at West Point is born.

1891—Army opens its first full season of football with its first victory, a 10-6 verdict over Fordham. Later, in the season finale, the Cadets make their first road trip and secure a 32-16 win at Navy. Dr. Harry Williams guides Army to a 4-1-1 record that season.

1892—Under the direction of Dennis Michie once again, the Cadets post a 3-1-1 mark. Army registers three straight shutouts, blanking Stevens (42-0), Trinity (24-0) and Princeton Reserves (14-0). Navy snaps the streak with a 12-4 win.

1893—Flexing its newfound football prowess, Army meets Eastern power Yale for the first time. The Elis dispatch the Cadets 28-0. Navy sends Army to a losing record (4-5) with a 6-4 decision in the season finale.

1894—Cadet Thales "Tilly" Ames earns honorable mention All-America status at center, becoming the first Army player to be singled out for his football accomplishments.

1895—Harvard's Charlie Brewer runs for a touchdown in the final minute to give the Crimson a 4-0 victory in the series' first meeting. The Cadets finish with an Academy-record five wins, all by shutout.

1898—Charles Romeyn kicks a 35-yard field goal late in the game to help Army forge a 5-5 tie with Princeton. Romeyn becomes the first Army player to receive first team All-America honors when he is named to Craig Whitney's All-America team in Harper's magazine.

1899—Charlie Wesson returns a punt 100 yards (on a 110-yard field) for a touchdown against Syracuse. That record still stands today. And, on Dec. 2, Army and Navy meet at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, squaring off for the first time since 1893.

1900—Army's defense holds Penn State scoreless, but the Cadet offense fails to hit paydirt in a 0-0 tie. Six of Army's seven wins come via shutout.

1901—Charles Daly, on the heels of two All-America honors prior to his graduation from Harvard in the spring, receives an appointment to West Point and becomes an All-America quarterback along the banks of the Hudson as well. He scores all 11 points in Army's 11-5 win over Navy.

1902—Paul Bunker is cited as an All-America at halfback, one year after earning similar accolades as a tackle. He is the first griddier ever to earn successive Walter Camp All-America honors at different positions.

1903—Army team captain Edward Farnsworth plays in his fifth Army-Navy game. The Cadets spot the 1913 – ARMY AND NOTRE DAME MEET FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Mids a 5-0 lead before storming back with 40 unanswered points in a 40-5 win. Farnsworth remains the only Army player ever to appear in five Army-Navy contests.

1905—President Theodore Roosevelt witnesses a brutal Army-Navy contest in which 11 players are injured during the 6-6 tie. He threatens to abolish the sport unless new rules are devised.

1906—Improved rules, including limited use of the forward pass, are implemented. Game time is shortened from 70 minutes with a 10-minute halftime to four 15-minute quarters with a 15-minute half. The neutral zone along the line of scrimmage is created and the field is cut from 110 yards to 100 yards.

1907—The Cadets finish 6-2-1, beginning an NCAA-record stretch of 32 straight seasons in which Army posts a winning record. That record has since been eclipsed.

1909—Army's season is cut short after five games. In a 9-0 loss to Harvard, Cadet Eugene Byrne suffers a broken neck and dies later in the weekend. Byrne is one of 30 players nationally who die while playing football this year. The flying wedge is outlawed and free substitution is allowed.

1911—Head coach Joseph Beacham's squad blanks its first five opponents and allows just 11 points in eight games. But the only loss is a 3-0 defeat versus Navy in the finale. On Nov. 18, Army defeats Colgate 12-6 for West Point's 100th football victory.

1913—Army and Notre Dame meet for the first time. The Irish unveil a wide-open passing attack, featuring QB Gus Dorais and receiver Knute Rockne, that stuns the college football world. Unheralded Notre Dame wins 35-13.

1914—Charles Daly, in his second season as head coach, directs Army to its first perfect record as the Cadets breeze to a 9-0 mark. The Black Knights allow just three teams to score points and cap the campaign with a 20-0 win over Navy.

1916—Elmer Oliphant earns the first of two All-America halfback honors and helps the Cadets to their second 9-0 season in three years.

1918—Army wins its only game of the year, 20-0 over

Mitchel Field, as World War I causes cancellation of the remainder of the schedule.

1919—Cadet senior Earl Blaik is among a host of disappointed Army players after a 6-0 loss to Navy at the end of a 6-3 season. Blaik will return in 1941 to begin a long and glorious career as Army's head coach.

1920—The Cadets beat Lebanon Valley 53-0 one week before drubbing Bowdoin 90-0 and setting an Academy record for points in a game that still stands today.

1921—Army travels to New Haven to play Yale, marking the first opponent other than Navy that the Cadets play on the road. Yale wins 14-7.

1922—The Cadets snap a three-year scoreless streak against Navy with a 17-14 win. Charles Daly retires at the conclusion of the season with a career record of 58-13-3 (.804). He coached Army during two different four-year stints. Army and Notre Dame tie 0-0 in the last meeting between these two teams on "The Plain."

1924—Michie Stadium is dedicated on Nov. 15 before Army and Columbia play to a 14-14 deadlock. Earlier in the year, following a 13-7 Notre Dame win over Army, famed sportswriter Grantland Rice dubs the Irish backfield "The Four Horsemen."

1926—Plebe halfback Christian "Red" Cagle scores on a 43-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run to help Army forge a 21-21 tie with Navy in front of 110,000 spectators at Chicago's Soldier Field.

1927—Christian "Red" Cagle scores on a 53-yard scoring run and catches a touchdown pass as the Cadets down Notre Dame 18-0 in New York City. The loss will be the only one for the Irish this season. Earlier in the year, Army beats Davis & Elkins 27-6 for the Academy's 200th football win.

1928—Eight years after former Notre Dame back George Gipp dies, Irish head coach Knute Rockne delivers his legendary "Win One for the Gipper" speech at halftime of the Army-Notre Dame game at Yankee Stadium. The Irish, who trail 6-0 at intermission to the heavily-favored Cadets, rally for 12 second-half points to win 12-6.

1929—Christian "Red" Cagle is named a first team

All-American for the third straight year, becoming the first Cadet to do so.

1930—Army's era of "defensive football" begins as the Cadets blank their first four opponents. Army, en route to a 9-1-1 record, will shut out seven opponents this season and 19 in the next three years under head coach Ralph Sasse.

1931—A difficult year for Ralph Sasse, who mourns the March death of close friend Knute Rockne in a plane crash and then must overcome the death of cadet Richard Sheridan following a neck injury in the Yale game. His desire for the game sapped, Sasse requests a transfer from West Point. He remains through 1932 at the request of Army officials.

1932—Army goes 8-2, losing to Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. All eight wins are by shutout.

1933—One of the truly great Army teams wins its first nine games, allowing only two scores in that span. With nearly 10 minutes to play in the final game, Notre Dame rallies from a 12-point deficit to edge the Cadets 13-12.

1936—Charles "Monk" Meyer completes 11 of 15 passes for 172 yards as he outduels Columbia quarterback Sid Luckman. The Cadets win 27-16. Army later loses 7-0 to Navy in the first Army-Navy game played in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

1938—Bill Wood replaces highly successful Gar Davidson as Army's head coach and guides his charges to an 8-2 finish. It is the last in a 32-year run of winning seasons for the Cadets.

1941—Earl "Red" Blaik replaces Bill Wood as Army's head coach following a 1-7-1 performance in 1940. The Cadets win their first four games and tie Notre Dame (0-0) in the fifth contest.

1942—On Oct. 24, Army thrashes Coe College 34-0 to register West Point's 300th football victory.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1944—Army wins all nine of its games, surrenders just five touchdowns all season and earns West Point's first football national championship. The Cadets average 56.0 points per game and outscore opponents 504-35, including a 48-0 thrashing of Notre Dame that ends a 13-year winless streak against the Irish.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1945—Felix "Doc" Blanchard, nicknamed "Mr. Inside" by New York Sun writer George Trevor, becomes the first Army player to win the Heisman Trophy and helps lead the Cadets to their second straight unbeaten season and national championship.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1946—After finishing second in the Heisman balloting the previous season, Army's "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, wins the Heisman Trophy. Earl "Red" Blaik is tabbed "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches' Association of America. A scoreless tie with top-ranked Notre Dame—the teams enter play ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country—snaps Army's 25-game winning streak.

1947—Columbia halfback Lou Kusserow scores his second touchdown of the day on a 2-yard run midway through the fourth quarter, propelling the Lions to a 21-20 upset of Army. That loss snaps the Cadets' 32-game unbeaten string that spans four seasons. Army guard Joe Steffy wins the Outland Trophy.

1948—The Cadets, ranked third in the nation and favored by three touchdowns, stop a late Navy drive to preserve a 21-21 tie. The Mids have lost 13 straight games entering this season's service-academy clash, but still manage to put the lone blemish on Army's 8-0-1 season.

1949—Quarterback Arnold Galiffa is named to five different postseason All-America teams after guiding the Cadets to a 9-0 mark and Army's fifth Lambert Trophy in the decade of the 1940s.

1950—The Cadets open the year with eight straight wins, including five shutouts, before Navy upsets Army 14-2 in the finale. The loss snaps a 17-game win streak and ends a 28-game unbeaten string. It is only the third Army loss in 64 games.

1951—Thirty-seven football players are among 90 cadets dismissed from the Academy following a cheating scandal. Earl "Red" Blaik considers resigning but remains at the behest of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The Cadets finish 2-7.

1953—Earl "Red" Blaik is named "Coach of the Year" by the Touchdown Club of Washington, D.C., after directing the Cadets to a 7-1-1 mark.

1954—Navy, bound for the Sugar Bowl, rallies from a 20-14 deficit to beat the Cadets 27-20, snapping a seven-game Army win streak. End Don Holleder, halfback Tommy Bell and guard Ralph Chesnauskas earn first-team All-America honors. Bell becomes the first Army rusher to surpass 1,000 yards, gaining 1,020.

1955—Prior to the season, in a desperate move to find a quarterback, Earl "Red" Blaik deftly slides Don Holleder from end to signal caller. Heavy criticism is heaped upon Blaik following a 26-2 loss to Michigan, Army's first defeat in six contests against the lowly Wolverines. Undaunted, Blaik sticks with Holleder and the senior guides the Cadets to a 6-3 record and a 14-6 win over Navy.

1957—On Oct. 19, Army defeats Pittsburgh 29-13. It is West Point's 400th football victory. Bob Anderson, joined by Pete Dawkins in the backfield, rushes for 983 yards and earns first team All-America accolades.

1958—Pete Dawkins takes his turn in the spotlight, winning the Heisman Trophy while leading the Cadets to an 8-0-1 mark. Earl "Red" Blaik installs the "Lonely End" formation with Bill Carpenter remaining split wide of the line and rarely joining the huddle. Blaik retires following the season. His career coaching mark stands at 166-48-14 (.759), including a record of 121-33-10 (.768) at West Point.

1959—Dale Hall replaces Earl "Red" Blaik at the Army helm. Hall, a former reserve Army halfback playing in the shadows of Felix "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis, has been an assistant on Blaik's staff since 1956. Army finishes 4-4-1 in the first season of the post-Blaik era while Bill Carpenter earns first team All-America honors. Army and Air Force meet for the first time and play to a 13-13 tie.

1962—Following three straight losses to Navy, and a 16-11-2 record in three seasons, Army officials replace Dale Hall with Paul Dietzel, another Earl "Red" Blaik disciple, who leaves his head coaching job at Louisiana State. Dietzel's first Cadet squad posts a 6-4 mark.

1963—Army's potential game-winning drive stalls at the Navy 2-yard line as time expires in a 21-15 loss. The annual service-academy classic is postponed one week due to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. In the fourth quarter, CBS-TV uses live television's first "instant replay" on a touchdown run by quarterback Rollie Stichweh. Legendary broadcaster Lindsay Nelson makes the call for CBS.

1958 – THE BLACK KNIGHTS GO 8-0-1 IN RED BLAIK'S FINAL SEASON. PETE DAWKINS WINS THE HEISMAN TROPHY.

1984 – HEAD COACH JIM YOUNG INSTALLS THE WISHBONE OFFENSE AND THE BLACK KNIGHTS WIN THE 1984 CHERRY BOWL.

1964—Despite their first losing record since 1951, the 4-6 Cadets snap a five-game losing streak to Navy by taking the season finale 11-8. Tailback John Seymour rushes for 101 yards and Rollie Stichweh accounts for 117 yards of total offense.

1966—Tom Cahill, Army's plebe coach, is elevated to head coach after Paul Dietzel resigns prior to spring practice. Cahill's squad goes 8-2, earning him national "Coach of the Year" plaudits. Team captain and line-backer Townsend Clarke becomes the first Cadet in seven years to earn first team All-America honors.

1968—In a 58-25 romp over Boston College on Nov. 9, Charlie Jarvis carries the ball 22 times for 253 yards and two touchdowns, setting an Army single game rushing mark that would remain in place until the 1999 campaign. His 1,110 rushing yards for the season also sets an Academy record. Linebacker Ken Johnson is a first team All-America selection as Army completes a three-year stretch in which the Cadets are 23-7.

1969—Team captain Lynn Moore closes out his career with 206 yards rushing in Army's 27-0 win over Navy. His totals for yardage and attempts (40) still stand today as single game rushing records for the Black Knights in the Army-Navy series.

1970—Army suffers through its worst season to date, going 1-9-1. The Cadets endure a brutal stretch of four road contests against the likes of Nebraska, Tennessee, Notre Dame and Virginia, then return home for games versus Penn State, Boston College and Syracuse.

1971—In his first season of varsity play, placekicker Jim Barclay nails a 40-yard field goal with 4:06 remaining to give Army a 16-13 win over Georgia Tech. Mercer Ferguson's interception in the end zone with three seconds remaining preserves the victory. Barclay kicks another late field goal to defeat Pittsburgh, while Army closes the season with a thrilling 24-23 win over Navy.

1972—Nebraska embarrasses Army 77-7 to open the season, but the Cadets, despite being 30-point underdogs, rally the next week to stun Texas A&M 24-14 in College Station. Army beats Air Force and Navy to win the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy.

1973—The Cadets go winless in 10 games and lose 51-0 to Navy. Tom Cahill is fired as head coach, causing an avalanche of negative publicity aimed at the Academy. In the season-opening 37-18 loss to Tennessee, quarterback Kingsley Fink throws for 326 yards, setting a school record.

1974—Homer Smith, appointed head coach in January, completes his first season along Army's sideline. In one of Army's three wins, Mike Marquez boots a 33-yard field goal with :17 remaining to give the Cadets a 17-16 victory over Air Force. Marquez, in uniform for his first varsity game, is called into action when starting kicker Mike Castelli is injured on the extra point after Army's first score.

1976—Homer Smith, who brought the Wishbone-T offense with him from UCLA, abandons the attack to better utilize the passing skills of junior quarterback Leamon Hall. Hall finishes the season with 2,174 passing yards, which stood as the Army single-season record for 27 years.

1977—Behind 1,944 passing yards from Leamon Hall, the Cadets win seven of 11 games and claim their second Commander in Chief's Trophy. In the season opener versus Massachusetts, Hall connects for five touchdown passes, including three to freshman Mike Fahnestock. That victory over UMass is the 500th in Army football history.

1979—Army, after opting not to renew Homer Smith's contract, hires University of Miami coach Lou Saban. Saban, who twice coached the National Football League's Buffalo Bills, leads the Cadets to victories over Connecticut and Stanford in the season's first two games, but Army will not win again, finishing 2-8-1.

1980—Lou Saban resigns his post abruptly in July. Top assistant, Ed Cavanaugh is hired. Mike Fahnestock, a senior, establishes an Academy record with 937 receiving yards.

1983—Army hires former Purdue and Arizona head coach Jim Young to replace Ed Cavanaugh. Navy dominates the Cadets en route to a 42-13 victory at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., in the first Army-Navy game since 1944 played outside the city of Philadelphia.

1984—Jim Young, known for his ability to adapt to his personnel, installs the Wishbone-T attack and Army leads the nation in rushing while posting an 8-3-1 mark. The Cadets defeat both Navy and Air Force for the Academy's third outright Commander in Chief's Trophy before dropping Michigan State 10-6 in the Cherry Bowl, Army's first postseason appearance. The Cadets tie an NCAA mark during the season when Doug Black, Nate Sassaman, Clarence Jones and Jarvis Hollingsworth each rush for more than 100 yards versus Montana in the Mirage Bowl played in Tokyo, Japan.

1985—After eight regular-season victories, Army is awarded its second consecutive postseason bowl bid, earning a trip to the Peach Bowl. When free safety Peel Chronister bats down Illinois quarterback Jack Trudeau's two-point conversion pass with :34 left, Army secures a 31-29 victory. The wishbone accounts for 291 yards rushing in Army's ninth win of the year, its most since 1949. Offensive guard Don Smith is named a first team All-American, becoming the first Cadet to earn that honor since Ken Johnson in 1968.

1986—The Cadets garner a fourth Commander in Chief's Trophy, beating Air Force 21-11 and Navy 27-7. In Army's 56-48 shootout win over Lafayette, quarterback Tory Crawford rushes for 208 yards and accounts for 331 yards in total offense, the second-highest total in Academy history.

1988—Army wins another Commander in Chief's Trophy and earns a trip to the John Hancock Sun Bowl to face Southeastern Conference power Alabama. The Crimson Tide overcomes a 28-20 fourth-quarter deficit to foil Army's upset bid, halting efforts for an Academy-record 10th win of the season. The Cadets' wishbone offense grinds out 350 yards against an Alabama defense that entered the game ranked fifth in the nation in rushing defense.

1989—Frank Schenk connects on a 32-yard field goal with :11 remaining, propelling Navy to a 19-17 win over Army in the first service academy clash held at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Junior half-back Mike Mayweather sets a single season school record by rushing for 1,177 yards.

1990—Mike Mayweather, who will finish 10th in the Heisman balloting, establishes a new West Point single season rushing standard by accumulating 1,338 yards. He finishes his career as Army's all-time leading rusher with 4,299 yards. After his sixth winning season in eight years at West Point, Jim Young retires, departing as Army's third all-time winningest head coach with 51 victories.

1991—Bob Sutton, a longtime Jim Young assistant and Army's defensive coordinator, is tabbed West Point's 31st head football coach. Sutton's charges start out 3-3 but suffer four defeats in the final five games, including a 24-3 loss to Navy.

ARMY WEST POINT GRIDIRON DATELINE

1992—Senior Patmon Malcom kicks a 43-yard field goal with :05 left to lift Army over Lafayette 38-36 in the season's third game. At Veterans Stadium in the season finale, Malcom boots a career-long 49-yard field goal with 12 seconds to play as the Cadets overcome a 17-point second-half deficit to stun Navy 25-24, capping the largest comeback in Army-Navy history (a mark that would remain only until 1996).

1993—Army's wishbone, consistently ranked among the nation's top rushing offenses, leads the country by averaging 298.5 ground yards per game. Sophomore fullback Akili King runs for 235 yards in the opener versus Colgate, the second-best day in Academy annals. The Cadets escape with another win over Navy and take a 44-43-7 lead in the series when Navy's plebe kicker Ryan Buchianeri misses an 18-yard field goal with six seconds left.

1994—For the third year in a row, an Army-Navy game is decided by a kicker. Army senior Kurt Heiss nails a career-long 52-yarder with 6:19 to play. The kick is also the longest ever in an Army-Navy game as Army wins 22-20. In a 25-24 win over The Citadel, quarterback Ronnie McAda throws for 257 yards, the 11th-best day in Army history and largest passing output in the "Wishbone Era."

1995—The Cadets cap a grueling 5-5-1 campaign by driving 99 yards in the final minutes for a game-winning touchdown in their 14-13 victory over Navy. The win is Army's fourth in a row versus the Mids. Four of Army's five losses come to bowl-bound teams, including a heartbreaking 28-27 loss to Notre Dame when Irish defensive back Ivory Covington stops Cadet tight end Ron Leshinski inches short of the goal line on the potential game-winning two-point conversion.

1996—Army reels off nine straight victories to open the season and appears in the national rankings during the regular season for the first time since 1988. Capping that nine-game burst was a 23-7 win over Air Force, Army's first triumph against the Falcons since 1988. The Cadets overcome an 18-point deficit to defeat arch-rival Navy 28-24, capping the largest comeback in Army-Navy history and giving the Cadets their fifth straight victory over the Mids. The win also secures the Academy's first outright Commander in Chief's Trophy title since 1988 and propels the Cadets to a record 10th win. Bob Sutton, who would later earn the "Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year Award," guides the Cadets to their fourth postseason bowl appearance as Army faces SEC power Auburn in the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl. By virtue of its vaunted wishbone attack amassing 346.5 yards per game, Army cops its third national rushing title of the "Wishbone Era." The Cadets, who see their furious fourth-quarter rally fall just short in a 32-29 loss to the Tigers, finish the season ranked 24th in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll and 25th by the Associated Press. In March of 1997, Superintendent Lt. Gen. Daniel W. Christman announces the Cadets will join Conference USA beginning in 1998.

1998—Seventeen months of anticipation comes to an end as the Cadets explode onto the Conference USA scene by defeating Cincinnati 37-20 at Michie Stadium in the first conference battle by an Army team in 109 seasons of intercollegiate football action. The Cadets, evoking memories of the 1995 squad, play a host of tight contests but come up short in most instances. Army battles nationally ranked Notre Dame for 60 minutes before a late field goal gives the Irish a 20-17 home win. Army closes the campaign with a 34-30 come-from-behind win over Navy after trailing 30-19 entering the fourth quarter. Sophomore quarterback Joe Gerena comes off the bench to spark Army, while the Cadets rip the Mids' defense for three long scoring runs (69 yards by Gerena, 70 yards by Ty Amey and 71 yards by Craig Stucker). Army leads the nation in rushing for the third time in six years and fourth time since instituting the wishbone.

1996 – THE BLACK KNIGHTS WIN AN ACADEMY RECORD 10 GAMES EN ROUTE TO THE CIC TROPHY AND A BERTH IN THE INDEPENDENCE BOWL.

1999—Army's second season in Conference USA features the Black Knights' first Thursday night home game as Army and Louisville battle at Michie Stadium. Behind a record-setting 269 rushing yards from fullback Michael Wallace, Army prevails 59-52 in double overtime. The game, which sees the Cadets build a 45-17 halftime lead before the Cardinals storm back to forge a 45-45 tie at the end of regulation, marks Army's first overtime contest. Quarterback Joe Gerena forces a second overtime when he finds halfback Brandon Rooney for a 9-yard TD toss on 4th-and-6. He scores the game-winning touchdown on a 7-yard run before the Cadet defense halts Louisville on its final possession. Earlier in the year, Army defeats Ball State on the day the Academy dedicates the Michie Stadium playing surface in honor of legendary mentor Earl "Red" Blaik. At season's end, Navy turns back the Cadets 19-9 in the 100th meeting of the storied Army-Navy rivalry. In the weeks following Army's season, West Point officials replace head coach Bob Sutton with Todd Berry, who had taken Illinois State to the Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and 1999. The Redbirds reach the national semifinals in 1999.

2000—The Black Knights establish or tie 12 individual and team records on game, season and career levels during the first year of new head coach Todd Berry's wide-open one-back multiple set. Senior running back Michael Wallace leads the way by posting the Academy's 10th 1,000-yard rushing season (1,157). He also rips through Air Force for 201 rushing yards to become the first Army player ever to post two 200-yard rushing days in his career. Omari Thompson becomes the first Black Knight to return two punts for scores in one season since Glenn Davis in 1944.

2001—Head coach Todd Berry's diverse offensive attack sets single season Academy records for pass completions (196) and passing yards (2218). In all, the Black Knights set or tie eight records on game, season and career levels. Army concludes the year with a 26-17 win over Navy at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium.

2004—Army participates in its final season as a member of Conference USA under the direction of legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Ross was named the 34th head coach in West Point's illustrious football history the previous December in an effort to help return the program to the state of its storied past.

2005—After opening the year with six successive losses, Army rebounds with four straight wins. The win streak opens with Army's first road shutout (20-0 over Akron) in 37 seasons and also features a 27-24 road win over Air Force, the Black Knights' first victory at Falcon Stadium since 1977. Running back Carlton Jones eclipses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the second consecutive season.

2007—Assistant coach Stan Brock, a 16-year veteran of the National Football League, is named Army's 35th head coach after Bobby Ross announces his retirement in January. Wide receiver Jeremy Trimble becomes Army's career leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions. In a thrilling 20-17 overtime win against Tulane, quarterback Kevin Dunn and receiver Mike Wright combine on a 36-yard "Hail Mary" on the final play of regulation to cap a 10-point, fourth-quarter comeback.

2008—Following the 2007 season, standout defensive back Caleb Campbell is selected in the seventh round of the National Football League Draft by the Detroit Lions, becoming the first Army player to be chosen by an NFL franchise since Ronnie McAda in 1997. Later in the year, senior fullback Collin Mooney rushes for 1,339 yards to break the Academy single season rushing record previously set by Mike Mayweather in 1990. Mooney posts five 100-yard rushing games and becomes only the third Black Knight to register two games of more than 200 rushing yards in a season. Following the season, Mooney is chosen to play in the East-West Shrine Game. Three weeks after the annual Army-Navy Classic, Rich

Ellerson is named the 36th head football coach in West Point history.

2009—Rich Ellerson guides the Black Knights to a 5-7 record in his first season, the program's best showing since 1996. The five victories are the most by a first-year Army mentor since Tom Cahill in 1966. The Black Knights score a 27-14 win at Eastern Michigan for their first win in a season opener since 1996. Trent Steelman becomes the first freshman to start every game at the quarterback position. Steelman leads the team with 706 rushing yards and five touchdowns. Wide receiver Alejandro Villanueva, who stands 6-10 and was a starting offensive tackle in 2008, is the Black Knights' leading pass-catcher with 34 catches for 522 yards. He registered all five of Army's touchdown catches.

2010—Winning football returns to West Point when the Black Knights post a 7-6 record. Army secures its first winning season since 1996 with a 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in Dallas, Texas. Linebacker Stephen Anderson is named Army's Most Outstanding Player in the game, racking up 14 tackles and an interception as the Black Knights' score their first postseason victory since the 1985 Peach Bowl. Fullback Jared Hassin leads Army's triple-option attack that ranks 8th in the nation in rushing yards per game with 1,013 yards. He becomes just the second Army sophomore (Mike Mayweather) to crack the 1,000-yard barrier. Quarterback Trent Steelman accounted for 18 touchdowns, including a team-best 11 rushing scores. For the second consecutive season, Steelman starts every game under center and was just five passing yards shy of becoming the first Army quarterback to throw for at least 1,000 yards and rush for at least 500 yards in the same season. Defensive end Josh McNary completes his career as Army's all-time leader in quarterback sacks (28) and tackles for loss (49).

2011—Army posts a 3-9 record, playing 19 freshmen, more than any other team in the nation. The Black Knights defeat Northwestern to extend their streak of season with a win over a BCS automatic qualifying conference opponent to three. Running back Raymond Maples rushes for 1,066 yards, which ranks ninth on the Army single-season list, as Army leads the nation with 346.5 rushing yards per game. Quarterback Trent Steelman has his Academy record streak of 32 straight starts stopped after suffering an injury against Vanderbilt. Despite missing all or parts of five games, Steelman is Army's second-leading rusher with 645 yard and leads the team with 12 rushing touchdowns. He completes the season as the only Army player to ever rush for 2,000 yards and pass for 2,000 yards during their career. Four different Black Knights rush for at least 500 yards during the season. Linebacker Andrew Rodriguez and defensive end Zach Watts are named first-team Academic All-Americans, marking the first time since 1957 the Black Knights had at least two players earn first-team honors. Rodriguez becomes the first Army Black Knight to win the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top scholar-athlete.

2012—Army receives a waiver from the NCAA that allows the Black Knights to hold their annual spring scrimmage away from West Point. The team travels to Fort Benning, Ga., and plays in front of a sold-out Doughboy Stadium. The team is split into two teams, Infantry and Armor, and the Armor squad comes away with a 20-14 victory. On March 20, Andrew Rodriguez is honored with the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete. Rodriguez is only the third college football player to win both the Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete, and the Sullivan Award (Peyton Manning, Tennessee; Tim Tebow, Florida). The Black Knights come from behind to defeat Boston College, 34-31, marking the fourth straight season they defeated a team from a Bowl Championship Series automatic qualifying conference. Army also scores a win over Air Force, ending a six-game skid versus the Falcons and 13-game losing streak in Commander In Chief's Trophy contests. Quarterback Trent Steelman (1,248) and running back Raymond Maples (1,215) become just the second Army duo to both rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. Maples is only the third Army player (Mike Mayweather, Carlton Jones) to reach the millenium mark in back-to-back seasons. Steelman sets Army quarterback records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns (17) in a season. The four-year starter finishes his career as the Black Knights all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (45) and the Army quarterback leader in rushing attempts (772), rushing yards (3,320) and 100-yard games (12).

2013—Terry Baggett broke the all-time record for rushing yards in a single game with 304 yards against Eastern Michigan at Michie Stadium on Oct. 11. He was the first Army player to capture Walter Camp National Player of the Week honors after that performance. He averaged 16.9 yards per carry and scored four touchdowns in a 50-25 win and made the Black Knights 3-4 up to that point in the season. Baggett finished with 1,113 yards on the ground with eight touchdowns. He became the 18th player in football history to reach 1,000 yards in a season. Jeff Monken was named the 37th head coach of Army football on Christmas Eve.

2014—Head coach Jeff Monken began his tenure at West Point, winning his first game against Buffalo by a 47-39 score. He became the first coach since Bob Sutton in 1991, to win his first game at Army. He was the first coach since Ed Cavanaugh in 1980 to win his first game over a Football Bowl Subdivision team. Larry Dixon became the 19th Army player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season with 1,118 in 2014. Chris Carnegie returned an interception 99 yards against UConn at Yankee Stadium in the final minutes to secure a 35-21 win over the Huskies on Nov. 8.

2015—Army won a game as the road team for the first time since 2010 with a dominating performance at Eastern Michigan on Sept. 26. The Black Knights racked up 654 yards of total offense in the 58-36 victory, which was the second most all-time and most against an FBS opponent in school history. The 58 points scored were the most against an FBS school since recording 59 against Louisville in an overtime thriller at Michie Stadium. The 556 yards on the ground were the most against a current FBS opponent in Academy history. Edgar Poe hauled in seven touchdown catches in 2015, which was the most since Jeremy Trimble had seven in 2007. Quarterbacks Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter each ran and threw for 100 yards in their Army debuts. Bradshaw's came against Fordham, while Carter did it against Rutgers.

ARMY WEST POINT™ FOOTBALL

1944 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six first team All-America selections.

Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. And it began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season.

Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter.

Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a letdown the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7.

ARMY 59, NOTRE DAME 0

That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory.

That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur."

Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself.

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

National Champions

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

- HEAD COACH EARL "RED" BLAIK

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a “better world” to emerge from the ashes of World War II.

Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point’s 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army’s 1944 team, which included the Cadets’ first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix “Doc” Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed “Blaik’s Black Knights” by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task.

During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights’ constellation. Thomas “Shorty” McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army’s Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13) and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory.

A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called “Army’s peak game of all time.” According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, “The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding.”

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia. As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship.

Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion, and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation’s outstanding player. Davis was runnerup. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football’s outstanding player and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as first team All-America picks.

Evaluating the squad that year, Blaik called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team’s accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

Blaik acclaimed "Coach of the Year"
National Champions

THE ONLY BLEMISH ON THE 1946 TEAM'S RECORD WAS A 0-0 TIE WITH NOTRE DAME IN A BATTLE OF NO. 1 VS. NO. 2.

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker.

The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame.

The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray.

A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless.

As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings.

Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors.

Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "'Doc' and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

NO. 2 ARMY 0, NO. 1 NOTRE DAME 0

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

PETE DAWKINS

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player.

First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson and Georgia Tech.

The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7) and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners.

Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes.

An All-America selection who also finished as second runnerup in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole.

In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind.

More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."
